Arms Aid Set At $1,450,000,000

Pact Nations Would Receive $1,130,000,000

Greece And Turkey Included; Hearings On Treaty Are Set

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson gave senators today a $1,130,000,000 proposal for military aid to North Atlantic defense pact nations in the coming year.

Another $320,000,000 would be set up for other nations in America's effort to dam off Communism. The total $1,450,000,000 program for foreign arms aid in the year beginning July 1 was outlined before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Sen. Smith (R-NJ) and other committee members said they understood that about $400,000,000 of the funds needed are already included in President Truman's budget. Smith told reporters:

"About $1,050,000,000 will be the additional amount needed to carry out this program. This means the rearmament program will cost less than we had anticipated." Previous estimates had assumed the whole new arms program would be piled on top of the present budget.

Connally Announces Program

Chairman Connally (D-Tex), who announced the program after a five-hour closed committee meeting, said the overall program includes aid for Greece and Turkey.

Connally told reporters that the $1,130,000,000 is a ceiling on the military outlay to Atlantic pact nations, but it may not be necessary for Congress actually to authorize or appropriate all of that amount.

He said in answer to questions that the figure includes surplus equipment that may be transferred to the nations, and because of this,

CONFESSES — Theodore Hilles (above), 19, yesterday confessed the brutal sex slaying of six-year-old George Counter. The chared nude body of the boy was found early yesterday on an ash heap in a Detroit hotel garage. (Story at bottom of page.)

Boy Confesses To Sex Slaying

DETROIT, April 21 (AP)—Dull, 19-year-old Theodore Hilles formally confessed the brutal sex slaying of a young playmate today.

His freckled face almost devoid of expression, the five-foot-five youth told Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien how he killed six-year-old George "Peanuts" Counter in the furnace room of the small hotel where he lives.

George's nude and charred body was found behind a furnace there early today. Nine hours later, Hilles was arrested by state police near the village of Pinckney, some 50 miles northwest of here.

Unemotionally, the prosecutor reported, Hilles told how he enticed little "Peanuts" to the basement room with the promise of a dollar. He molested the boy there, Hilles added.

"Then Peanuts began to scream, and wanted to go home," he went on.

He put his hand over the child's mouth and smothered him until George went limp, Hilles' confession continued. Then, when the boy continued to move, his companion said he took a coal shovel and struck him about the face and neck.

"Go Easy," Soft Coal Producers Advise John L.

Land First Punch In Contract Battle

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP)—The Southern Coal Producers Association advised John L. Lewis today to go easy with his demands this year or coal "might be priced right out of the market."

The association thus beat the United Mine Workers president to the first punch in the 1949 contract contest. It made its appeal in a formal request for early negotiations on a new agreement to replace the present contract which expires June 30.

Lewis has already called his 200-man policy committee together here next Monday to frame the union's new demands. Lewis had no immediate comment on what the Southern Association president, Joseph E. Moody, told him.

Moody, formally notifying Lewis of expiration of the agreement six weeks from now, appealed for a "cooperative attitude" in working out a new one.

"We want the negotiations to produce a sound, workable and fair contract so that this great industry of ours can, not only maintain its present competitive position, but improve it greatly," Moody said.

The industry, he said, "is faced with the serious problem of competing in the fuel economy of this nation and it becomes increasingly evident that it would be very easy to price coal right out of the market—if that has not already been accomplished."

Labor costs make up a large percentage of the total, Moody said, "and we consider the problems that will be discussed and reviewed in the coming negotiations as probably the most important that have faced our industry in many years."

Speculation on the union's new demands have dealt with a possible 20-cent increase in the tonnage royalty on coal production. The royalty, which finances the union's health and welfare fund, is now 20 cents. Lewis also is believed thinking about asking a shorter work week in place of the present basic 40 hours.

Bank Holdup Admissions Reported After Three Men, Woman Arrested

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 21 (AP)—Oral admissions of three bank robberies that netted more than $40,000 were announced by the FBI tonight after the arrest of three men and a pretty young woman in Tennessee.

D. S. Hostetter, agent in charge of the Memphis FBI office, said the robberies involved were those of:

Occident Federal Saving and Loan Association, Baltimore, January 28, in which $2,900 was taken.

Union Trust Company, Baltimore, February 15, in which $32,000 was taken.

And the Follansbee, W. Va., National Bank April 13, in which $5,400 was taken.

Those arrested today and another man already under arrest in West Virginia—Roy L. Mann—took overlapping parts in the robberies, Hostetter said.

He gave this account of today's arrests:

Carl Close, 31, Joseph William Moran, 24, and Audrey Fay Lynn, were arrested on a farm in the hills of Hickman County, Tenn., early this afternoon. A short while later James Edward Bernett, 22, was taken unarmed in a drugstore in a Memphis hotel.

Bernett, Close and Mann are charged with robbing the two Baltimore banks. Bernett, Close and Moran are charged with the Follansbee robbery, and Miss Lynn—whom Hostetter identified as Close's girl friend—is charged with aiding and abetting in the Follansbee robbery.

The FBI agent said Bernett told officers he took part in all three robberies, and that two other men—whom he did not name were accomplices. Hostetter added that Moran admitted that he, Close and Bernett robbed the Follansbee bank, and said that Miss Lynn took part in the getaway.

Mann has told officers, Hostetter said, that he, Close and Bernett robbed the two Baltimore banks.

Close had made no statement.

Close and Moran are from Pittsburgh, Miss Lynn is from Philadel-

Truman Accepts Resignation Of Secretary Of Army Royall

No Successor Chosen; Bruce Is Nominated As Envoy To France

By EDWARD E. BOMAR

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP) — Army Secretary Kenneth C. Royall resigned today after telling President Truman he is convinced that "war is not imminent."

Mr. Truman announced acceptance of his resignation at a news conference and disclosed also the nomination of David K. E. Bruce as ambassador to France.

Kenneth Royall

Shortly afterward the Economic Cooperation Administration announced appointment of Barry Bingham, Louisville, Ky., editor - publisher, to succeed Bruce as European recovery mission chief in France.

Royall's successor has not been chosen. He wrote Mr. Truman in one of two letters of resignation which the White House published that he wanted to return to private life and added:

"My recent personal inspections in the overseas theatres have shown the Army everywhere to be in excellent condition and have confirmed my belief that war is not imminent."

Toured Europe Last Fall

Royall, North Carolina lawyer who had the World War II Army rank of brigadier general, visited 22 countries in Europe last fall and then made a survey trip to Japan and Korea. He was the last Secretary of War before becoming Secretary of the Army with the unification of the armed services in the new Department of Defense.

In making his announcement on Royall, Mr. Truman said he did not expect many other changes soon but commented that there always will be changes. Then he went on to say that it takes an iron man with an elephant hide to serve the government.

Mr. Truman said also that the controversy over whether to go ahead with work on the Navy's huge aircraft carrier, the United States, has not yet reached him for decision. Asked whether the ship will be built, he replied with a question of his own—has the keel been laid?

Then he said he had not been invited to be present. Later he said the matter finally will have to be submitted to him and then he will make a decision.

No Soviet Peace Feelers

Bruce in Paris will succeed the veteran Jefferson Caffery, who Mr. Truman said is being brought home to be assigned to another post.

The President reported Royall's resignation and the appointment of Bruce as ambassador at the outset of his weekly meeting with newsmen. Then tersely answering questions on various subjects Mr. Truman:

1. Said Dr. Robert F. Bacher has submitted his resignation from the five-man Atomic Energy Commission and the President has not yet been able to persuade him to withdraw it. The vacancy resulting from the resignation of W. W. Waymack has not been filled.

2. Said Louis Johnson, new Secretary of Defense, is doing a good job.

3. Declared that no Russian peace feelers have come his way. He declined to comment further on the current wave of reports that Moscow may be proposing a settlement of the Berlin blockade.

Archbishop Backed Up In Heresy Row

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP)—The Roman Catholic Church of the United States today issued a new catechism which backs up Archbishop Richard J. Cushing's stand in the Boston "heresy dispute.

It says that persons "outside the church" can attain salvation under certain conditions.

The new religious textbook, however, does not deal with the Boston dispute as such. In preparation for years, it is designed, church officials said, to give a "rather complete presentation of the doctrine of the church" on a broad field of subjects such as war, government, labor-management relations as well as purely religious matters.

Publication of the 426-page book climaxes 12 years of research by a group of prelates and Catholic scholars known as the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. The catechism is for secondary schools and colleges. It marks a major revision of a standard religious textbook which has been used since the 1880's.

Conference officials pointed out that the catechism has a bearing on the Boston College case in which four lay instructors were discharged after they objected that the college was guilty of "heresy" in teaching that non-Catholics could be saved.

Archbishop Cushing, however, upheld the college and he barred the Rev. Leonard Feeney from the altar for siding with the objecting instructors.

On this point, the new catechism says persons "who remain outside the Catholic Church through no grave fault of their own and do not know it is the true church, can be saved by making use of the graces which God gave them." It adds, however, that persons who do know that the "Catholic Church is the true church x x x and refuse to join it cannot be saved."

Peace Congress Speakers Blast U.S., Laud Stalin

BY JOSEPH E. DYNAN

PARIS, April 21 (AP) — Speakers at the Communist-dominated World Peace Congress today denounced war, the United States State Department and "Yankee imperialism" and praised peace, Prime Minister Stalin and the Soviet Union.

Meanwhile, the State Department in Washington placed its own label on the conference. A department statement said the meeting here is one of a series designed to "make people thing that the Soviet Union alone favors peace."

The statement pointed out that many of those participating in the current sessions were active in a similar conference in New York last month. It added:

"We are confident that this conference, like the one in New York, will expose the position of those who, while claiming to be free men, follow a dictated party line."

A group of non-Communist French leftists in Paris assailed the peace congress as one sided. They banded together as the Democratic Revolutionary Rally and developed plans for a world peace organization of their own, beginning with a double mass meeting here April 30.

At the Communist-inspired congress in the Salle Pleyel, speaker after speaker attacked the North Atlantic treaty, the Marshall Plan for European recovery and American policy in general. There were a few kind words for the "American people" as distinguished from their government.

Konni Zilliacus, leftwing British legislator, said the "workers of Britain will not fight or be dragged into fighting against the Soviet Union."

Once Zilliacus, a member of the British Labor Party, veered far enough to remark that the blame for the Berlin crisis was "mixed and distributed on both sides." There was no applause then. He called upon the conference to produce a reasonably detailed set of proposals "for settling issues between the East and West."

Bonnie Cool To "Symbol"

Little Bonnie Kirchen, 5, blind since birth, doesn't quite know what to make of the lively pup, "Symbol," presented to her two days ago by the Master Eye Foundation, Chicago. It scares her when he leaps up to lick her face. Previously, townspeople of Grand Ledge, Mich., had collected thousands of tabs, believing a myth that a cigaret company would provide her a "seeing eye" dog for the tabs. Her plight came to the attention of newspapers and presentation of the pup followed. (AP Wirephoto)

Cool Head Pays Off On Hot Seat

PORTLAND, Me., April 21 (AP) — A power shovel operator's cool head paid off on a hot seat today.

George Patchell, 38, Newport, hit an 11,000-volt power line with the shovel crane.

Sparks jumped from the rig like Fourth of July fireworks. Patchell sat tight while a frantic foreman called the power company.

The juice was quickly turned off. Patcheld, grinning, stepped down from his cab.

Russia Assailed In Colony Issue

LAKE SUCCESS, April 21 (AP)—A United States delegate said today Russian ambitions to gain a Mediterranean foothold in North Africa were to blame for big power disagreement over Italy's former colonies.

The statement was made in the United Nations Assembly's Political Committee by American Delegate John Foster Dulles in reply to an attack on the United States and Britain by Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister.

Gromyko charged the United States and Britain want to take over the former Italian colonies, carve them up for their own use, and give some crumbs to Italy and Ethiopia. He said the United States and Britain "fought tooth and nail" against any attempt to solve the problem.

Dulles said the colonial problem could have been settled four years ago in London talks had it not been for Soviet ambitions to get a base in Tripolitania, the western half of Libia.

He told the committee the U.S.S.R. took the view that nothing could be accomplished satisfactorily except under Communism. He said Russia's purpose is to cause the failure of anything not Communist.

Senate Approves Long-Range Housing Legislation, 57 To 13

Tempers Explode; Anti-Segregation Amendment Loses

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP)—The Senate tonight passed the long range housing bill providing for a vast slum clearance program and construction of 810,000 public housing units during the next six years.

The measure also calls for a farm housing program and research to cut building costs.

The vote was 57 to 13. The bill now goes to the House.

The vote came shortly before midnight after a long, wrangling session in which tempers frequently exploded. Once Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) angrily accused Democrats of making a "deal" with Sen. Langer (R-Ind) to induce Langer not to launch a filibuster.

Earlier in the day the Senate rejected, 49 to 31, a proposal to bar segregation on the basis of race, creed or color in the renting of public housing.

Termed Move To Kill Bill

It was sponsored by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) and Cain (R-Wash), who also offered unsuccessfully a sheaf of other amendments.

The fight against the Bricker amendment was led by advocates of President Truman's civil rights program. They said they regarded the amendment as a move to kill the housing bill.

On the other hand, those for the amendment said it provided an opportunity for those really in favor of civil rights to demonstrate it.

Several amendments were adopted. Sen. Taft won acceptance of one limiting to 200,000 the number of subsidized public housing units that could be built in one year. He said the bill would have permitted 250,000 a year. He expressed concern that completing the program too quickly would "take supplies and labor away from private builders."

Taft, a backer of the bill's major provisions, offered an amendment to strip from it a provision calling for $12,500,000 in grants for the improvement of sub-standard farms. Taft holds that the farms in question are uneconomic and there is no justification for spending the money on them.

Taft Amendment Defeated

Langer was quickly on his feet, threatening to talk all night against the Taft amendment.

Later, Sen. Maybank (D-SC), chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, spoke to Langer, and soon Langer sat down and let the amendment come to a vote.

The Taft amendment was defeated and Langer then moved to double the $12,500,000 fund. His amendment carried.

Taft stormed:

"We all saw the deal made right here on the Senate floor." There isn't any question the (Banking) committee bought off Mr. Langer with $12,500,000 to shut off his filibuster."

Great Deficit Seen By Byrd

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP) — Sen. Byrd (D-Va) tonight predicted a three-year federal deficit of $11,000,000,000.

He added that if the "rapid" trend toward a more powerful central government is not halted, "we are headed for regimentation equal that which is now suffered by the English, if not worse."

The Senator gave what he called a "Byrd's eye view" of the fiscal situation in a speech before the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Byrd said the picture is "bleak", that "the crisis is virtually upon us," and this crisis will be come particularly serious during the fiscal year ending July 1, 1951.

His predictions, which he said will elaborate in "fullest details" in a Senate speech within the next week, covered the three fiscal years 1949, 1950, and 1951. The fiscal year 1949 ends June 30 of this year.

He predicted deficits of $815,000,000, $3,200,000,000, $7,000,000,000 respectively for the three years. He said these figures did not include many proposals such as 7-group Air Force, universal military training, or a medical care insurance plan, and that they are based on a continuance of a high level of prosperity.

For the three-year period, Byrd estimated federal income of about $121,000,000,000 and expenditures of about $132,000,000,000.

U. S. Citizens Urged To Flee From Capital

City Is Apparently Doomed; Chinese Officials Leave

By SEYMOUR TOPPING

NANKING, Friday, April 22 (AP)—Chinese Communist troops slashed across the Yangtze today at a point near Nanking and Americans were warned to flee the tottering capital while there is time.

A Red crossing about 25 miles east of Nanking, coupled with a previous beachhead planted 80 miles to the southwest, threatened the city with imminent encirclement.

The United States Embassy, telling Americans to consider quitting Nanking "now," raised the possibility the city soon may become a battleground. Chinese officials already were leaving the city by every plane.

The latest crossing on the east threatened to sever quickly the main railway and highway to Shanghai, about 240 miles by the Yangtze route to the southwest. This is the normal route Americans and other nationals would use in quitting Nanking.

The embattled river front already cuts off use of the Yangtze for such evacuations.

The American Embassy directed its warning to citizens not prepared to remain through an "emergency." The embassy said there was no assurance the capital would be spared civil disturbance or military assault.

River Is Blockaded

Citizens not prepared for such an emergency should leave while "normal commercial transportation is available."

The embassy noted that the river is blockaded; that an American naval vessel cannot be stationed at Nanking; and that all Marine guards at the embassy have been removed to Shanghai except for six inside.

The latest Communist crossing of the Yangtze was reported by Ministry of National Defense source at about 25 miles east of Nanking. There were no other details.

This apparently-doomed Nationalist capital could hear artillery fire and see fires across the river on the north bank, where the Reds gained new, threatening footholds.

Singer Robeson Causes Tumult

STOCKHOLM, April 21 (AP) — Paul Robeson sang a Russian anthem tonight in Stockholm's Concert Hall and the tumult it provoked drowned out the voice of the American negro artist for a time.

Robeson also delivered a short speech in which he said he wanted universal peace but above all peace with the Soviet Union. Yesterday Robeson told the Communist-sponsored World Peace Congress in Paris that American negroes would never fight the Soviet Union. His statement was disputed by a negro leader in New York.

Robeson sang the first verse of the Soviet anthem in Russian and the second in English. A violent row broke out as the audience got the idea he was singing a Russian anthem.

Loud whistles (the European equivalent of the boo) were heard and many left the hall. Others answered with loud cheers and applause. The noise made it impossible to hear Robeson at one point but he did not stop singing.

Bizarre Slaying Of Rising Young Opera Tenor Baffles Authorities

ATLANTA, April 21 (AP) — A rising young Metropolitan Opera tenor, John Garris, was murdered today against a backdrop of dark and dank stone walls.

He died with a bullet wound through his left side in a setting as deeply mysterious and involved as any play ever written by Shakespeare.

For police there were no clues worth mentioning, nothing to indicate why the native of Frankfort-on-Main, Germany, was killed or by whom. There was no indication of robbery.

Garris, whose real name was Hans J. K. Gareis, died shortly after the closing performance in the opera's three-day stand here.

The bond and handsome, though bald, fugitive from Germany died, police said, around midnight, perhaps about 2 a. m. Even as the rest of the company prepared to entrain for Memphis, Tenn.

Detective J. M. Pack said two persons heard shots sometime after midnight in the vicinity of the alley in which Garris' body was found.

While police ran down lead after lead here, two other detectives flew to Memphis to interview members of the opera company.

These detectives later reported the interviews with members unproductive and the entire cast was released to give a single performance tonight.

Garris' body was found about 7:45 a. m. by a negro porter, Love Thomas, on his way to work in the cavernous warehouse district.

Police said later they believed he had been shot in an automobile and his body laid out on the cindery alleyway, flanked by massive stone walls.

When his body was discovered Garris was hatless and coatless. Subsequently his coat, unpierced by a bullet, and his hat were found bundled atop a garbage can.

Newly Discovered Star Explodes

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 21—(INS)—Dr. Harlow Shapley, director of the Harvard College observatory, announced that a newly-discovered star has exploded with the force of a billion atom bombs.

Dr. Shapley said the star—possibly the second closest to the earth—was discovered by Dr Willem Luyten of the University of Minnesota.

He said the explosion had the force of a billion atom bombs like the type used on Hiroshima, Japan.

The observatory head said if the sun were to explode that way "people on earth would have a very uncomfortable hot quarter of an hour."

He said the star was seen to flare up for about 20 minutes last December 7, but the flareup must have actually taken place more than six years ago. The star is around six light years away

Local B. And O. Workers To Get Back Wages

About $425,000 in back pay will be distributed to 4,900 workers of the B. and O. Railroad's Cumberland Division under terms of a recent contract, R. A. J. Morrison, division superintendent, said.

The back pay, Morrison said, is retroactive to October 1, 1948. About 3,000 of the workers who will benefit live in Cumberland. Others live between Brunswick and the West End of the division towarde Grafton, W. Va.

The Cumberland workers' back pay will total about $260,000 and railroad officials expect it to be distributed in the May 13 payroll. The average will be between $80 and $90 per worker.

The contract, recently signed by American railroads and non-operating unions, covers clerks, shopmen, carmen, dispatchers, baggage workers, and all others not in train or engine service. The contract also provides for a five-day week starting September 1.

Some back pay has already been distributed to Western Maryland Railway workers here and the total amount for both railroads should reach about $500,000.

The Hindu custom of a widow throwing herself on the funeral pile of her husband was outlawed 120 years ago by the British government but is not yet obsolete.

Doerner Valedictorian At Mt. St. Marv's

Wyand F. Doerner, Jr., 14 North Johnson Street, has been named valedictorian of his class of 108 which will be graduated from Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, June 8.

He is among 10 members of a group selected for "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," and is a member of the Monsignor Tierney Honor Society and of the MSM chapter of Delta Epsilon Sigma, national Catholic honor fraternity.

Doerner plans to enter the medical school of the University of Maryland in the fall.

The Coup De Grace To Soviet Blockade Of Berlin

The Airlift operation that carried nearly 13,000 tons of goods into West Berlin on the eve of Easter was not only a brilliant engineering operation it was a shrewd political stroke. Morally speaking, it might be called the coup de grace to the Soviet blockade of Berlin.

That prodigious aerial performance was not intended merely to give West Berliners a happy Easter; it was carefully timed to emphasize the futility of the blockade—a fact which Russia has long since realized and which is now openly admitted by the Communist-controlled press in the Soviet zone of Germany. Since the Western powers cut off trade between the West and the Soviet zone in retaliation against the blockade, recovery plans in Eastern Germany have gone haywire. Even the Soviet stooges now plead with the Russian military to restore East-West trade.

There are many signs that the Russians would like to end the blockade, provided they could do so without a serious loss of face. One of the many reports has it that Russia is prepared to lift the blockade if the Western powers re-open the four-power conference on Germany. The Allied position has been that the blockade must be lifted first. This debate has probably been going on in the background of the current UN meeting.

Considering the enormous importance, both economic and political, of ending the Berlin impasse, the Allies might well consider some verbal compromise —provided the first move for a settlement comes from Russia. But one thing should be understood: the resumption of four-power talks, whether it follows or accompanies lifting of the blockade, must not interfere with creation of limited self-government in Western Germany.

The Kremlin has tried by many a strategem to break up or delay that effort. The only end that would justify throwing aside the vast labor which Russian policy has compelled would be the free choice by the Germans of an all-German government, under such Allied controls as would safeguard the peace of Europe without benefiting any one power. That would call for a reversal of all Soviet policy in Germany since Potsdam.

Oracles Speak As The National Game Begins

From now on until the Ides of September there will be baseball all over the American map. People will have a common interest regardless of age, race, religion, politics or station in life all of which draw the line somewhere. A home run is a home run, no matter which team makes it! It is well for a while thus to forget one's troubles in the incitements of the diamond and, above all, of the outfield where the long hits shower.

There is a certain compulsion—maybe it's public opinion—that causes those who have set themselves up as oracles and analysts of the great American game to risk their reputations this time of year.

Newspapers and magazines are full of predictions. It all adds up to the same answer—the reader should know by now which teams will be top dogs when dusk closes down over the nation's major league baseball parks this Fall.

There are omens, and the usual spate of undercurrents that make the pennant race of 1949 look red hot. On the basis of Joe DiMaggio's Achilles heel, one national magazine has seen fit to publish a story titled significantly: "Is the Yankee Empire Crumbling?"

Lou Boudreau says his Indians look good. The Clan Mack is touted for the first division. Ted Williams is hitting like a storm. The Phillies, with a mountain of fresh and hustling material, look like a good dark horse.

All of which is merely another way of saying that one of the pleasantest echoes of Spring is still the solid thwack of wood hitting leather.

The Parole Of Nathan Leopold Is Pending

Out of the past comes the name of Nathan Leopold. The convicted slayer, along with the late Richard Loeb, of Bobbie Franks, in one of the nation's most brutal crimes, has a chance of receiving a parole. He has been given a hearing before the Illinois parole board.

The nation is going to find this development very hard to understand. At the time of the sentencing of Leopold and Loeb to serve life and 99 years concurrently, the judge recommended against parole. It was believed at the time that every effort had been made to make doubly sure that neither slayer ever would be freed. Yet here is Leopold apparently getting a chance of freedom because of his service as a "guinea pig" in wartime medical experiments.

Perhaps Leopold is a reformed man. Perhaps he will go straight. But parole is a dangerous business, as residents of Maryland and other states have come to know to their sorrow. Far too many paroled prisoners turn to crime upon their release, and society suffers. Does the penalty for a crime, meted out by a judge and approved by the people at large, mean nothing any more?

Franco's Coyness

Those Americans who favor including Spain in the North Atlantic Treaty, the Marshall Plan, etc., have been taken aback by what Dictator Franco thinks about it. Franco's views have just been stated as replies to a series of questions asked by Kingsbury Smith of International News Service, whose recent questions to Stalin brought replies that were quite revealing.

Franco's replies, like Stalin's, are a bit on the vague side. But he indicates that he would not turn down any offers of financial aid or economic cooperation, under the Marshall Plan or otherwise. And he refuses to say that Spain would be willing to cooperate in the defense of western Europe or the Mediterranean.

He still insists that Spain under his dictatorship is the outstanding anti-communist nation in the world, but he is not willing to sign a treaty saying he will go to the defense of other nations attacked by Russia if they will do the same for him in like case.

His attitude seems to leave the pro-Franco forces without a leg to stand on. They were willing to ignore Franco's ruthless dictatorship and embrace him as an ally on the grounds of pure expediency. But he doesn't want to be an ally.

Growing Into Old Age

Aging is a lifelong process and begins the moment we are born. The man or woman of 60 actually is 60 years old chronologically but some are older or younger when measured by other standards. In other words, age is a relative matter.

Our cells, tissues, and organs are changing constantly. After forming, they grow, mature, decline, and atrophy. These modifications proceed at a different pace in different persons and structures. The heart for example may have taken it easy and, upon reaching the seventh decade, is only 40; whereas the cells of the liver were rushed and that organ is 80 years old. This chap has the heart of a man 20 years younger than his chronological age and a liver an equal number of years older.

Illness may hasten the process, epscially if it strikes vital organs. We have all encountered individuals of 50 who aged 10 years after a prolonged sickness, a kidney disorder, or a severe attack of influenza. Chronic and focal infection also is a drain on our resources because of its toxic effects. Nests of bacteria are likely to be located in the teeth, gall bladder, prostate, or sinuses. All too often, their hideouts remain hidden or if known, are neglected when no symptoms are present.

Since such conditions may rob us of health in later years, or shorten our span of living, it is advisable to be examined periodically for infections of this nature. Waiting until we are 60 before instituting this plan may be too late. It must be started in our 40's, when the period of decline makes its intial appearance. Symptoms suggestive of an internal disorder bear investigation and a thorough study should be made of all the tissues that are readily accessible. Abscessed teeth should be removed and other sources of infection treated.

Bad habits ought to be corrected at this time lest they become fixed and more difficult to rectify in years to come. Smoking is a good illustration, especially if it is leading to chronic cough or disturbances in the nose and throat. "Hacking" every morning to eliminate the discharge produced by tobacco becomes a more difficult chore as the years roll by. Those who enter the later decades free from bronchitis stand a better chance of coping with the degenerative changes that are prone to attack the lungs of oldsters. The 40 year old also will profit by making an attempt to keep weight at a respectable level.

• — • — •

The mental and emotional reactions undergo alterations in much the same manner as our physical being although as a rule, the ebbtide is slower. Not only that, but existence is enriched by accumulated experiences; some of the world's greatest contributions have stemmed from the minds of men and women who were entitled to retirement decades before. By maintaining interests, the "gray matter" remains alert because life is action; vegetation only hastens deterioration. The middle-aged individual should acquire new hobbies and continue to make new friends particularly among younger persons.

WART SITES

Reply

Warts can but "plantar" refers to the sole of the foot. The term, therefore, cannot be used in describing warts that appear on the palm of the hand.

HORMONES FOR MEN

F. T. writes: Is it true that men over 50 should take needles for the change, like women?

Reply

Men go through the change of life. If the condition proves bothersome, "shots" are available but rarely are needed because the hormone has been prepared in tablet form.

PECULIAR DISEASE

H. M. writes: What causes lupus erythematosus?

Reply

In this disturbance, the small blood vessels are affected. The condition has certain earmarks of an inflammation but to my knowledge no organism or virus has been incriminated. Allergy and vitamin and glandular deficiencies have been considered but the cause remains a mystery. Some authorities are of the opinion that it might be of rheumatic origin. There is no specific remedy.

THE ULCER PERSONALITY

S. T. writes: Do you believe that a person with stomach ulcer should see a psychiatrist besides taking medication?

Reply

Many psychiatrists believe this, because of the emotional element associated with lesions of this nature. This type of care is rarely necessary, however.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

AFL Should Appoint Investigator To Probe Graft Inside Pressman's Union; Local Unions Were Powerless Under Czar Berry

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, April 21. — The more you probe into the record of the late George Berry, president of the Pressman's Union, the smellier the mess becomes. Also, the more difficult becomes the job of union locals to clean up the mess.

Five locals have now asked for a thorough investigation of Berry's will and the manner in which he robbed his own union. They are: San Francisco, Seattle, Indianapolis, Washington, and the chapel of the New York World-Telegram. However, the union's executives, who long let Berry get away with almost anything he wanted from the unions' treasury, want to conduct the probe in their own way. They don't appear happy about outside interest.

However, for the sake of all other honest labor unions in the USA, the case of the Pressman's Union appears to be one where President Green of the A.F. of L. should appoint a trusted A.F. of L. attorney to work with the Justice Department in protecting the rights of all union members.

Otherwise, it will be very difficult for union locals to act. For here is an illustration of what happened in the past when one local challenged the honesty of president Berry.

In 1920, the Chicago local of the union did challenge Berry, accusing him of using union funds to finance the Clinchfield, Tenn., Hydroelectric Corporation, which Berry owned. The Chicago local sued, proved its case and got a $165,000 judgment against Berry, in the course of which U. S. District Judge A. M. J. Cochran said:

"It may be that in their wisdom, the union members may want Mr. Berry still to rule over them notwithstanding the findings made here. In the 1920 convention he said that the unions would fight like hell. That describes him. He has fought like hell in this case to keep the truth from being known."

Berry Was Czar

The aftermath of this case, however, was most significant. Though the judge rendered a $165,000 judgment against Berry, it was never paid. Since he controlled the union, the judgment was forgiven.

Furthermore, the Chicago local which brought the suit was penalized. The union officers in charge were thrown out and a steward was appointed by Berry to run the union.

For years afterward, Berry ran the Chicago local through a steward. This he had the power to do under the union's by-laws.

Meanwhile, the U.S. Treasury's files against Berry are almost unbelievable. The pressmen's head was given one year in jail for income-tax evasion, but since he threw himself on the mercy of the court, the Government did not have to prove its case and none of the amazing details were ever published.

However, one of the unbelievable ways in which Berry cheated his own union was by buying a hunting lodge in Canada out of union funds for $7,500. Then he sold it back to the union for $24,000. In other words he sold to the union a hunting lodge which it already owned, and pocketed the price—$24,000.

Berry and other union executives were also allowed $9 a day for traveling expenses. However they construed this to mean $9 a day whether they were traveling or not, and Berry drew that amount every day even while at home.

However, when he traveled, he had the hotel bill sent to the union so that he collected twice. This was in addition to the $9 a day.

Between the years 1926 and 1941 Berry reported an income of $74,000. However, the U. S. Treasury, checking up on his revenue, arrived at the figure of $842,000 instead. And when they prosecuted Berry for income-tax evasion, it is interesting to note that Berry dipped into the union treasury to pay his defense attorney's fees—to the tune of $100,000.

In other words the union paid the expense of defending Berry for cheating the union.

Note — One reason for Berry's heavy expenses was that he was supporting two Mrs. Berrys — his own wife, and a Mrs. Alva Berry, who lived on one of his near-by farms in Tennessee.

Navajos Plead

Weatherbeaten Navajo and Hopi Indians sat in the thick-carpeted, mahogany-decorated room of the House Public Lands Committee the other day and told a story of governmental neglect.

Shepherded by forthright Norman Littell, their counsel, the Navajos told how the most modernized country in the world has given them not one high school on their entire reservation.

With 24,000 children on a reservation the size of West Virginia, the U. S. Government has given the Navajos schools for only 6,000.

Sam Ahkeah, chairman of the Navajo Tribal Council, told the story eloquently.

"It is difficult to sit here in this beautiful building and discuss the deplorable conditions on our reservation," he said. "In some cases our people must travel 400 miles over almost impassable roads to reach the nearest hospital.

"We need roads, hospitals, and —most important—schools," he begged. "Most of our children must grow up without schooling."

Eighty per cent of the Navajos are illiterate and 65 per cent cannot speak English.

Remarked Rep. John Murdock, Arizona Democrat: "If the Navajos could live on scenery, they'd be rich indeed."

Note—If the Navajos could collect royalties they claim from the Vanadium Corporation they would be wealthy. They own some of the best uranium deposits in the world, but through a technicality have had difficulty collecting royalties.

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

"The Traitor"

I went to see the play "The Traitor" at the 48th Street Theater, here in New York, and got a real thrill. The stars are Walter Hampden and Lee Tracy, which means a good performance, but actually it was the play itself that gave me a fine evening. It is a well-written, carefully documented, finely planned play—a relief from left-wing social significance which, for a decade now, we have been fed by writers who, while growing rich on American audiences, find it pleasurable to run this country down.

"The Traitor" is set on a campus of an American University and its most lovable character is a professor of philosophy who is obviously pained by the necessity of making immediate decisions on everlasting problems. Of course, that has faced many of us for years, particularly since our sons and daughters have been coming home from college with the fantastic notion that a professor's lecture against all human experience for 5,000 years proves that the professor is ipso facto right.

It has also puzzled us as we have watched our politicians bankrupt the only solvent country on earth on the assumption that solvency is immoral.

But the philosopher gets a terrific jolt when his idealiste protege, a great physcist, swipes a sample of thorium to give to the Russians with the object of saving the world from war.

What I like so much about this play is that the characters and language are so authentic. It has been the private judgment of many scientists that if we gave to the Russians all our superior weapons, then power would be equalized and there would be no war.

Of course, their assumption is that war is always produced by countries which have equal weapons, which has never been true in history. But in this era of overspecialization, why should a psysicist know any history, and in this era when the less one knows, the more right he has to an opinion, why go to history for anything?

So the physicist pursues private judgment and gets into a terrific lot of trouble, which ends in his death. However, Lee Tracy, who acts as a naval intelligence officer, shows that the dumb navy has techniques which the smart boys do not understand, which is why the 12 Communists are having such an unpleasant time in Judge Medina's court. In that instance, it was the dumb FBI which happened not to be so dumb. In some other instance, it might be the dumb army or the dumb Central Intelligence which proves that appearances are mostly deceitful and that the smart boys generally fall afoul of their own smartness.

This is a play to see as a play, an excellent melodrama, a thriller. I don't want to spoil it for you by too much description and argument, but I do hope, if you get the chance, that you will go to see it. Because, apart from having a good evening, you will be doing a good work. You will encourage managers, playwrights and actors to dump the left-wing line and to go back to American plays which portray American character. It ought not to be necessary to scrape the barrel of American life to be a successful playwright. It ought not to be necessary to bring the curtain down on every second act by having a woman on stage say what we used to call dirty words.

It ought not to be necessary to show Americans to be dipsomaniacs, nymphomaniacs, bums, cheats, liars, thieves. I can mention a dozen plays that made the top box-office in which every character was what in the vulgarities of the moment is called a louse.

That is not America. That is not you. That is not your parents. We can have fun without it. So this play, "The Traitor," is a relief from all that. With one exception, the characters are decent Americans and most of them are familiarly wholesome and the story is of our day and age.

They tell me that the box-office is not so good and that is why I am writing this free advertisement. The box-office should be sold out to spite the left-wingers.

Russians Will Strive For Price For Ending Airlift

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, April 21 — Any thought that the Russians, having been impressed by the Airlift over Berlin, will now obligingly end their blockade and thereafter allow things to go back to normal without a major negotiation will soon be dispelled.

The Soviets are hinting that they will lift the blockade but they have a price. They know the airlift is expensive. They know that America and Britain would like to be rid of that expense but this of itself isn't a good reason for the Russians, from their viewpoint, to give up the leverage they may hold in the situation.

Wishful thinking in the United States regards the airlift as having impressed the Soviets to the point of abandoning their blockade. Already the argument is being made that it was worth all the expense just to impress the Russians. This is based on the assumption that the Soviet don't know what large airplane transports can do if a nation is willing to use that expensive method of carrying coal and other supplies which normally move by rail at a fraction of the freight cost.

Will Abandon It For Price

The Soviets have maintained the blockade for a reason—to get the Allies to negotiate a different settlement of the German issues than the British and American governments have been willing to make. The Russians are evidently willing now to try another approach to the negotiations—they will abandon the blockade in return for certain agreements.

The matter of what currency shall circulate in the eastern zone governed by Russia is not and never was the real issue. The Russians showed their hand last summer when they tried to get a conference to negotiate an over-all settlement of German problems.

As the western allies move toward a solidification of their position in the three zones which they command it has become increasingly difficult for the Russians to force a reversal. Also there are signs that the counter-blockade is pinching the Russians in their zone.

The Soviets are ready to try negotiating again. The bait offered this time is a lifting of the blockade which, it will doubtless be argued by the Russians, can save America a huge sum of money. The Russians have always wanted to take a proportion of their reparations from Germany out of current production but they undoubtedly would accept any other equivalent that now might be devised.

The request for certain products to be exchanged, possibly with Russian currency to be used, will come up in the negotiations. The Russian viewpoint has been and doubtless always will be based on materialistic considerations. It would not be surprising to hear the Soviets argue that, if the lifting of the blockade removes an item of $1,000,000,000 a year, maybe a portion of that saving could be devoted to subsidizing trade into the Russian zone.

Some Such Scheme Expected

Some such scheme may be expected to emerge as the price of the lifting of the rail blockade. The theory that the Russians have suddenly decided to abandon one of their principal instruments of harassment without anything to show for it to their own people is so out of keeping with their customary diplomacy that it scarcely seems tenable. Besides, another opportunity for harassment and the imposition of more costs appears in the Iran sector where trouble seems to be brewing already.

As long as the Russians do not have the atom bomb, they will not start a war. Hence the Soviet tactics are to frighten the democracies and keep them spending huge sums for armament in the hope that such a policy will strain the economy of the United States and hasten the oncoming of economic depression. Then the Soviets figure they can infiltrate inside European governments without going to all the expense of marching their armies into western Germany and France. It is the maintenance of American production strength and the stabilization of the American economic system which offer the principal barrier to the spread of communism in the world. The maneuvering over the Berlin blockade is an isolated part of an over-all strategy and the Russians will be in no hurry to lift the blockade if they cannot get concessions on the trade front.

ON THE LINE

By BOB CONSIDINE

WASHINGTON, April 21—(INS)—Just about the closest thing we'll ever have to a bank of the United States is located a block from the White House and across the street from the treasury—the Riggs National Bank.

It began operations in 1836 and has since held the deposits and cashed the checks of Presidents from Tyler to Roosevelt. It advanced $7,200,000 (in gold) that bought Alaska from Russia, cashed a $50,000,000 check for the lend-lease administration, stopped Daniel Webster from withdrawing $1,200 from his balance ($364.77) and took care of Douglas MacArthur's foot-locker after his flight from Corregidor.

Abraham Lincoln banked at Riggs and, among the other cancelled checks of his on hand, is one of five dollars made out to "colored man, with one leg." Another five buck check of Lincoln's was made payable to "Mr. Jones, a sick man." A Lincolnian predecessor, Tyler, borrowed $1,195.48 from Riggs on February 4, 1843, to pay his more pressing debts, and assured the bank in a plaintive note that he would repay the loan as soon as he got his salary check.

Lincoln's Account Was $1,373.53

Lincoln had $1,373.53 in the bank the night he was shot. Dolly Madison, who became a kind of public charge in her later years, had an account at Riggs to which a number of public-spirited citizens, including President Polk's Secretary of Navy Mason contributed. Gen. Pershing was a director of the bank in his hermit-like years of retirement.

These and a thousand other historic and interesting notes about the bank were dug up by an old classmate of mine at George Washington University, Roland T. Carr, now assistant vice president of the remarkable cache.

It took a bit of salesmanship on Carr's part to persuade the conservative organization to tell some of its lustrous history.

A vigorous and proud prospector, Carr is still unearthing a wealth of material in the prosaic-looking records of the old banking house. Some of his dust-laden excavations have made advertisements which have become first class exhibits at banking conventions. To wit:

John C. Freemont, explorer, scientist, soldier, statesman, underwrote his 1845 expedition from St. Louis to California (which led to the inclusion of that state in the union) with a $6,000 check cashed at Riggs. He hired a hand named Carson as his guide—Kit Carson—and returned east in 1850 as one of California's first two senators.

Francis Scott Key A Depositor

Francis Scott Key, a song-writer of some prominence, did business with Riggs. President Buchanan's letter, asking Rigs "Please to send my tin box by the bearer" is still in the files. Henry Clay was a Riggs customer when Washington was a city of 56,000 people. Stephen A. Douglas differed with A. Lincoln on many points, but agreed on A. L.'s choice of banks. Sam Houston banked at Riggs. So did George Bancroft, founder of the Naval Academy while secretary of the navy in 1845. Bancroft's many messages are still on hand, including one which starts, "will you have the goodness to collect the coupons on the bonds of mine in your custody?"

Brigham Young, writing to Riggs from "Great Salt Lake City" on August 9, 1864, began, "I herewith send you my draft for 850 pounds upon my agent, Liverpool, which please sell and place to my credit." Gen. Winfield Scott always made out his personal checks to "W. S." Among other cancelled checks at the bank are those of Jefferson Davis and the confederacy's vice president, the crippled Alexander H. Stephens of Georgia.

Bank Is Classy Place Today

The bank is a classy place today, with discreetly pink checks and the hush of a cathedral. But it doggedly retains some of what must have been its original flavor. Its president, Bob Fleming, is one of the least hostile bankers in captivity. Its vice presidents sit in the open, exposed to the public, and have been known to okay loans for such personal reasons as a loanee's known proficiency at poker. More than 110 years ago the bank, after existing somehow through the depression of 1837, moved to one of the most renowned buildings in Washington, a small structure at the corner of 15th and F streets which still stands. It had been Suter's tavern and in delousing it to fit it for banking, the Riggs people had to dispose of the chairs on which British officers who had ordered the burning of the presidential mansion (in retaliation for some atrocious arson on the part of U. S. troops in Canada) watched the blaze. Now the place is a cigar store, which may be significant.

Harry S. Truman is one Chief Executive whose name is rarely mentioned around Riggs. He doesn't bank there, which may account for the fact that President Fleming is a staunch Republican.

Baering Down On The News

There seems to be a bit of investigatory radar going on in Manhattan political tournaments. The mayor had a couple of unlisted telephones in city hall.

One telephone was the ultimate in the communication department. The mouth-piece was camouflaged as a door-knob and the ear-piece was in a filing cabinet.

The defendants copped a plea of habitstratus screeve. That's not guilty with extenuating circumstances.

In the tapped interim nobody has demanded a play-back of the municipal mumbles. The attorney for the defense will make his shill in sign language. The district attorney will rebutt in Indian smoke signals.

SECRETS OF CHARM

by JOHN ROBERT POWERS

If you aspire to a higher charm quotient than you now have, you are doing something to help others as much as to help yourself. Every step toward greater charm makes you a more pleasant person to live with, talk with, meet, or just to see ... so it brings others pleasure in an exact ratio to your success.

Perhaps you think that grammar and charm are only distantly related. The fact of the matter is that grammar is the child of charm. Grammar developed because people wanted to make themselves more easily understood. That shows a consideration of others — and that is the essence of charm!

The Why of Grammar

Grammar is nothing more than agreement among people as to which words are the best to use when arranged with other words. It helps to clarify whatever you may wish to say. The better your grammar is, the less chance you have of being misunderstood. And grammar helps others grasp your meaning quickly.

Because so many of your letters indicate that you enjoy the tests and quizzes in this column, I asked the speech consultant on my staff, Lauree McNamee, to work out one for you today. She's the one who helps the Powers Girls speak as beautifully as they look! And if you get 100% in this test today, that's what you're doing, too.

A Quick Test

All you do is underline the correct word of the two you'll find in parenthesis in each sentence. Here is an example: It is different (from, than) the other. "From", of course, is the correct word. Now go ahead and test yourself!

Is it correct to say: 1.—Everyone should use (his, their) own pen. 2.—None of us (was, were) injured in the accident. 3.—She introduced Jack to Joan and Jane and (I, me). 4.—I'll (bring, take) it back to the store. 5—He had to (lie, lay) down for one hour every day. 6.—Jack was talking to (he, him) and Mary. 7.—Between you and (I, me) the job will be done. 8.—If I were (he, him) I should do the work. 9.—They were earlier than (we, us). 10.—Mary speaks (like, as) I do.

Speaking correctly brings others pleasure and therefore heightens your charm! Take todays test and rate yourself accordingly!

Don't be discouraged if your score is low. Just get busy and do something about it. Make it a six week's project — then take the test again. You'll be amazed at how fast you improve!

..Tomorrow: First step in making the most of your eyes.

It Says Here

By BOB HOPE

Here we are in Phoenix, Ariz., where we did our first show and it surely was exciting working in the state capitol. The governor wanted to meet us at the airport, but three things held him up . . . car broke down, big budget meeting . . . and he had to take time to think up the first two excuses.

Phoenix is only 350 miles from El Paso and from the plane we could easily tell where the Texas border starts.

There were 25 Texas rangers on the state line wrestling tourists.

We did our show in the Phoenix Union High School gymnasium and I got worried when I saw bullet holes in the basketball backboard.

Later I found out they're so tough here that when they shoot from the foul line they use 45's.

Billy Farrell, our booming baritone, went over to the weight-lifting corner and spotted a 200-pound bar bell. Before we could stop him he was picking it up with one lung.

I found out that many natives of Phoenix complain about the odor from the stockyards. Oddly enough, right after our show the mayor got 500 telegrams saying, "Build more."

And down here they're very proud of their oranges. I want you to know that the oranges in Phoenix are as delicious as any I've ever tasted in Florida.

Pre-Nuptial Parties Given For Virginia Anne Steel

J. T. Lloyd Honored At Bachelor Party

Numerous pre-nuptial parties have been given in compliment to Miss Virginia Anne Steel, financee of John Thomas Lloyd. Miss Steel, 842 Gephart Drive, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Steel, Altoona, Pa., will become the bride of Mr. Lloyd, Greensburg, Pa., tomorrow.

The wedding ceremony is to be solemnized at 10 a. m. in the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament, Altoona, with Rev. I. J. Denny officiating. Mrs. Clarence Becker, Duncansville, Pa., will be her sister's matron of honor and Mrs. Francis Cirelli, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Jane Luddy, cousin of the bride, will be the bridesmaids Thomas C. Steel, Jr., brother of the bride, will serve as Mr. Lloyd' best man and the bridegroom's four brothers, David J. Lloyd, Arthur R. Lloyd, Kenneth G. Lloyd and Evans A. Lloyd, will be the ushers.

Friends at the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory, where Miss Steel is employed as chemical librarian, entertained with a surprise miscellaneous shower in her honor recently. Hostesses were Mrs Doris Zimmerman, Hyndman; Miss Eleanor Hesse, Keyser; Miss Virginia Thomas, Ridgeley; and Miss Catherine Price, Frostburg. The party was held at the bride-elect's new apartment, 1507 Frederick Street. Miss Thomas, who has a collection of dolls, displayed a wedding party as a feature of the entertainment. The bridal motif was carried out in the tiered wedding cake and decorations. Twenty-five guests attended.

Mrs. Becker was hostess at a miscellaneous shower for her sister at her home in Duncansville The shower gifts were arranged beneath an antique parasol and a pink and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations of the refreshment table. Covers were laid for 30 guests.

The men in the Instrument and Technical division of the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory entertained with a bachelor party for Mr. Lloyd, who is employed in the Instrument department. It was held at the Bowling Green Fire Hall. John Drummond and John Dunkle were in charge of arrangements and 30 co-workers and friends attended.

Civic Club Plans New Member Tea

Four new members were welcomed into the club at the general meeting of the Woman's Civic Club yesterday in Emmanuel Episcopal Parish House. They are Mrs. C. A. Brotemarkle, Mrs. Leo G. LaNeve, Mrs. Earl C. Robertson and Mrs. Louis D. Young. They will be the guests of honor at a tea to be given at the home of Mrs. Morris Rosenbaum, The Dingle, in May.

Mrs. Henry C. Swearingen informed the club that at present there is no urgent need for eyeglasses for the Dr. Franklin Eyeglass Fund and recommended that the fund created by the club in the future be called the "Dr. Joseph Franklin Memorial Fund."

The Community Service Group, with Mrs. Harry C. Deal chairman, was in charge of the meeting. The group had as its guest speaker, Mrs. Hester Beall Provenson, assistant professor in the Speech department at the University of Maryland. Mrs. G. Morgan Smith introduced Mrs. Provenson whose topic was "Beware, the New Look," which she presented in a charming and feminine manner.

Mrs. William A. Douglas, as well as presiding at the meeting, reported on the golden jubilee meeting of the First District of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs held in Frederick recently.

It was announced that the Junior Woman's Civic Club will hold a card party and style show at Ali Ghan Country Club April 27 at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Charles L. Kopp reported on the annual convention of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs held in Baltimore April 10-12.

The Welderman Bible Class of Centre Street Methodist Church has postponed its covered dish dinner from today until April 29. It will be held at 6 p. m. in the church social hall.

A visitation to Lonaconing will be made by the Past Matrons and Past Patrons Association tonight.

Union Grove Club Plans Activities

Members of the Union Grove Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Kellar Wednesday, and were asked to listen to Cavalcade of America May 2, when Miss June McKimmon, 82, one of the first home demonstration agents in the country, will be on the air. This will open Home Demonstration Week.

The group also was urged to wear or display at the May meeting articles of clothing which they made. It will be held at the club house with Mrs. Albert Smouse, Mrs. Verna Hicks and Mrs. Helen Wilkinson as hostesses. The Bedford Road Club will be guests at this meeting.

Mrs. Smouse presided and opened the meeting with the "Collect for Women." Mrs. Elva Brotemarkle was co-hostess. The Nutrition committee composed of Mrs. Kellar, Mrs. Brotemarkle and Mrs. Ralph Ferguson gave a demonstration on making chiffon cake and distributed recipes. Roll call was answered with interesting facts about Maryland.

Flower and garden problems were answered by Mrs. William Welsh, chairman. Mrs. Rose Yeargan, RW SC chairman, urged members to attend College Week for Women June 13-18. Highlights of "Stars in His Crown" were given by Mrs. William Rilling, Reading chairman. She announced that Mrs. Helen Vandegrift will give a review next month.

The "Salvation of Germany through the training of youth" was stressed by Mrs. Vandegrift, International Relations chairman, in reporting on a talk given by Miss Margaret Riley, Somerset, Pa., who had visited Germany distributing dolls to the children. She said the youth have leaders who were 4-H members in this country. She also spoke on the 300th anniversary of the Act of Tolerance in Maryland, passed in April 1649.

Two new members were admitted to the club, Mrs. Charles Bosley and Mrs. Douglas Heavner. The Sunshine report was given by Mrs. Ruthella Fey. Mrs. Steve Bowling read of the life of Katherine Lee Bates who wrote "America the Beautiful," which the group sang, as well as "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Mrs. Wilkinson displayed a dress she made.

Mrs. Thelma Eichner and Mrs. Edward Lundien had charge of the recreation which consisted of a guessing game. Prizes were won by Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Brotemarkle and Mrs. Vandegrift. Others present were Mrs. T. A. Frommeyer, Mrs. George Windish, Mrs. Carl Bennett, Mrs. L. L. Swertzer, Mrs. Albertis White, Mrs. Margaret Reitz, Miss Nyna Fey, Mrs. Harry Zembower, Miss Eula McMakin, Mrs. John McMakin, Mrs. Margaret Douglas, Mrs. Margaret Casteel and Miss Lila Murphy, a visitor.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN JOSEPH YEAGER

Mrs. Sadie DeLuca Becomes Bride Of John J. Yeager

Rev. Donald Brake Performs Ceremony

Mrs. Sadie DeLuca, daughter of Mrs. Sadie LaPorta, 87 East Main Street, Frostburg, became the bride of John Joseph Yeager, son of George Yeager, 74 Greene Street, city, April 18.

The wedding ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Donald Brake in the parsonage of St. John's Lutheran Church. Mrs. Jane Jenkins, Frostburg, was the matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. Leo Walker, Mexico Farms served as Mr. Yeager's best man.

The bride was attired in a sand colored suit with which she wore pink accessories and a corsage of orchids Her attendant wore a plaid suit with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

A graduate of Beall High School, where she was active in athletics, the bride, until her recent resignation, was employed at the Camelia Room.

The bridegroom, a graduate of LaSalle High School, is a veteran of three and one-half years service in the Army, of which he spent three years on duty in the ETO. He owns and operates the Midland Bowling Alley.

Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held in the Camelia Room. Since their return from a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Yeager are residing at 1000 Virginia Avenue.

Mrs. Barncord Heads WRC

The Woman's Republican Club of Cumberland elected Mrs. George Barncord president at the meeting last night at the Girl Scout house.

Other officers serving with her for the two year term are Mrs. Brooks Starcher, first vice president; Miss Lillian C. Myers, secretary, and Mrs. Miles G. Thompson, treasurer.

Mrs. James Morris presided at the meeting and Mrs. Harry Anderson reported for the Nominating committee. Plans were discussed for the spring dinner meeting and routine reports given. A social hour concluded the meeting and cards were played and prizes awarded. Mrs. Karl Bachman was chairman of the social and Mrs. Jessie White was Refreshment chairman.

The Gleaners Class of First Methodist Church will meet at 7:30 tonight at the church social hall.

Mrs. Ruth Barnes will be hostess to the Frances E. Willard Bible Class of Kingsley Methodist Church at 8 tonight at her home, Broadway where she attended the wedding of Miss Rodi Olson and Dr. Albert Engstrom.

Mrs. T. C. Fuller, Baltimore Avenue, is a patient in Allegany Hospital.

LaVale Group Plans Band, Nursery

The Missionary Society of the LaVale Baptist Chapel formulated plans for beginning a Sunbeam Band and a nursery at the Chapel, at the meeting Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fazenbaker. They also plan to send a delegation to visit the almshouse and all members are urged to attend an all-day study course April 28 in Westernport Baptist Church.

Mrs. John Barncord, member of the Youth Week committee, reported on the officers and their duties for Youth Week which will be held April 25-May 1. The observance will be climaxed with a banquet served by the Woman's Missionary Union.

Youth officers are Charles Snow, pastor; Clayton Smith, superintendent; Alma Lauder, church clerk; Owen Barncord, treasurer; Kenneth Glen, Sunday School secretary; Ronald Smith, John Hunter, Owen Barncord, Clayton Smith and Jack Burkett, deacons; and Phyllis Barncord, pianist.

Mrs. Joseph Snow and Mrs. Samuel Tasker were co-hostesses for the meeting which opened with prayer by Mrs. David Lauder, a new member, who was welcomed into the group. Mrs. Arthur Christner conducted the business session and roll call was answered with Scripture verses. Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Donald McGill and Mrs. Fazenbaker.

A program was conducted by Mrs. J. D. Paddleford. Others taking part were Mrs. Lauder, Mrs. Fred Gates, Mrs. Tasker, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Fazenbaker, Mrs. McGill and Mrs. J. C. Ledbetter. Closing prayers were by Rev. and Mrs. Ledbetter. Refreshments were served.

Others present were Miss Dora Lewis, Mrs. Baxter Day, Mrs. George Christner, Mrs. Roy Lafferty, Miss Violet McGill, Mrs. Roy George and Mrs. Brady Dever.

Girl Scout Section Board Elects Mrs. R. W. Prysock

Plans Made For Other Meetings

Mrs. Ross W. Prysock was elected secretary of the Girl Scout Leaders Planning Board of Section 10 at the meeting held yesterday in Waynesboro, Pa.

Other officers are Mrs .Clark P. Lahman, Waynesboro, chairman; and Mrs. C. D. Whitfield, Winchester, Va., vice chairman.

October 13 was set for the date for the next planning board meeting, which will be held in Martinsburg beginning at 1 o'clock. Sometime in March was set as the tentative date for the spring conference. Routine business was also transacted.

Mrs. Prysock attended as president of the local Leaders Association, and Mrs. Charles Hornbrook, delegate. They were accompanied by Mrs. Roberta McFarland.

Social Center Re-Opens

The Social Center, sponsored by the Junior class of Catholic Girls Central High School, will re-open tomorrow night after being closed during Passion and Holy Weeks.

The Cavalier Orchestra will play and dancing will be from 8:30 until 11:30. Refreshments are to be had at the Snack Bar.

There will be several games for those who do not wish to dance. Among these are ping pong and checkers tables.

Newsman Given Life In Polk Case

SALONIKA, Greece, April 21 (AP)—A three-judge court today sentenced a Greek newspaperman, Gregory Staktopoulos, to life imprisonment and two fugitive Communists to death for the killing of American Radio Correspondent George Polk.

The Communists, Adam Mouzenides and Evangelos Vasvanas, were tried in absentia. The prosecution described Mouzenides as the trigger man. Greece's Communists-led rebels have contended that Mougenides and Vasvanas were killed in action before Polk was slain last May.

Staktopoulos, a former Communist, was convicted by a jury of being an accessory to the murder. The verdict said he was innocent of premeditation.

His 68-year-old mother, Anna, was acquitted at the request of the prosecution. She also had been charged with being an accessory. The mother and son wept when the sentence was pronounced.

Polk, 34, was a correspondent for the Columbia Broadcasting System. His trussed-up, bullet-riddled body was pulled from Salonika Bay last May 16.

Former Model Freed In Husband's Slaying

TOWSON, Md., April 21 (AP)—Mrs. Monette Burns, 40-year-old former model and entertainer, was found innocent of murder today in connection with the fatal shooting of her third husband.

The verdict was returned by an all-male Baltimore County Circuit Court jury which found she killed her estranged mate, Emmett Burns, 38, in self defense.

Burns was slain in the wee hours of Sunday, March 6, in the Parkville home of his wife.

The brunette defendant testified she found him lurking behind a door as she was showing the house to an Army officer she had met the previous night in a downtown Baltimore bar.

She said Burns and her guest, Capt. Daniel Lynch, Jr., scuffled and Lynch left the house. Then, she continued, Burns beat her and called her vile names.

She admitted firing several shots from a .25-calibre automatic and seeing Burns' face covered with blood.

Toleration Act Extolled By Lane

ST. MARY'S CITY, Md., April 21 (AP) — Religious toleration and the men who wrote it into Maryland law 300 years ago were extolled at a tercentennary celebration here today.

The so-called Act of Toleration, decreeting freedom of conscience and worship for all Christians of the early proprietary province, passed the Assembly of Freemen April 21, 1649.

Speaking of St. Mary's Seminary, Gov. Lane termed it "appropriate that we turn back with a feeling of introspective humility to our ancestors who gave voice to the thing the world cries for today, liberty and freedom of conscience."

St. Mary's City was settled in 1634 and became the first capital of the province.

Gov. Lane said the Toleration Act was the first legislation in history recognizing "the rights of people to worship as their conscience dictates."

Representatives of various faiths also appeared on the program. One, Rev. Louis A. Wheeler, Leonardtown, declared that a group of men he did not identify, "plot to curtail the Catholic Church and her parochial schools."

Pact Nations

the appropriation may not be nearly as high as the ceiling.

Connally said that there is no available information at present as to what per cent of the $1,130,000,000 will be in the form of surplus equipment.

Pact Hearings Open Thursday

Connally announced that public hearings on the North Atlantic security treaty, signed here by 12 nations April 4, will open at 10:30 a. m. (EST) next Thursday.

Sitting in the conference with Acheson and the Foreign Relations Committee was Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson.

Connally said the relationship between the Atlantic treaty and the military aid program was discussed.

"The benefits for peace and security already achieved," he said, "and to be further won by the ratification of the pact, cannot be over-emphasized either abroad or in this country."

He added that Acheson had pointed out the arms program would be necessary whether there is an Atlantic alliance or not.

Robber Suspect Nabbed

INDIANAPOLIS, April 21 (AP) — Clyde Milton Johnson, 3, wanted for a bank robbery at Memphis, Tenn., and a jailbreak at Miami, Fla., was wounded by FBI agents in the heart of downtown Indianapolis tonight. He was captured a short time later.

U. S. Citizens

The skies over Nanking roared most of the night with the passage of transport planes, taking government officials to refuges in the south.

Four British warships had been drawn involuntarily into the great battle of the Yangtze. The cruiser London, destroyer Consort and sloops Amethyst and Black Swan all were damaged and had 42 dead from persistent fire by heavy Red artillery.

They fired back defensively, and all but the crippled Amethyst retreated downriver to Shanghai. The Amethyst was cut off about 60 miles east of Nanking.

The Chinese government officially announced that the Legislative Yuan and other government branches were moving tonight at Canton and Kweilin and the island of Formosa, while the Defense Ministry and the presidential office were going to Shanghai.

It was not disclosed whether Acting President Li Tsung-Jen also would flee, but it was believed he might stay on in Nanking a while longer.

Li's three-month effort to negotiate a peaceful settlement of China's long civil war was at an end.

His official spokesman charged the Communists had never intended a real peace, but insisted on unconditional surrender and aimed at clamping a "reign of terrorism" on all China.

From Peiping the Communists broadcast a fiery order of the day by Chairman Mao Tze-Tung and Gen. Chu Teh, Red commander-in-chief.

It charged the government with bad faith and told the Communist armies to "annihilate" anyone who dared to resist, "liberate the people of the whole country" and try to capture Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek alive.

Chiang, who retired January 21 to let Li try for peace, was last reported still at Chikow, his ancestral home 210 miles southeast of Nanking.

The Red order of the day said the Red peace conditions — which amount to total surrender — could be signed by any regional government divisions or even by Nanking if they still desired to do so.

Britain Within Rights

LONDON, April 21 (AP) — Britain declared tonight that four of her warships shelled by Communists along the Yangtze River had every right to be in those waters.

"Britain is entitled to send warships into China's inland waters, provided it has the consent of the Chinese government—which it has," a Foreign Office spokesman told a news conference.

"It has that right in the same way that the Chinese government has the right to send her warships up the River Thames with the permission of the British government."

Sheriff Reports Miners Fired On

ST. CHARLES, Va., April 21 (AP)—Sheriff Bill Bays reported miners were fired upon and an attempt made to blow up a magazine house at the Orville Howard mines north of here today.

He said at least three men were being sought in connection with the incident.

Bays said:

Seven workmen were camping in a mine house when the building was riddled with bullets. The workmen fled to safety.

Attackers then threw charges of dynamite at the magazine house, loaded with powder and dynamite. Ensuing blasts from individual sticks of dynamite failed to explode the powder-storage building.

Ray Sanders, who recently bought the Howard mines, had this to say following the incident:

Recently several former workmen came to him asking back pay for vacation time. Sanders advised them that he did not owe them anything because they had never worked fo rhim. Sanders said the men told him the mines would not operate unless he paid them.

Bank Holdup

phia and Bernett is from Latrobe, Pa. Bernett, Mann and Close are brothers-in-law.

Meanwhile, the wives of Close and Bernett were taken to Baltimore, along with Mann, 28-year-old former military policeman charged with taking part in the Baltimore bank holdups. The wives are charged with conspiring to rob.

Faces Kidnap Charge

SHINNSTON, W. Va., April 21 (AP)—State Police Capt. E. E. Stout said tonight a kidnaping charge would be filed against Orville Kittle in the abduction of two Weirton city policemen.

At the same time, he discounted the possibility that three men and a young woman captured in Nashville, Tenn., today as a result of three bank robberies in West Virginia and Maryland had anything to do with the kidnaping case.

One of the bank robberies—that of the Follansbee, W. Va., bank—took place on April 13, several hours before the kidnaping.

The Weirton officers had picked up two men for questioning about the bank holdup. They were overpowered and taken to Ohio, where they were left handcuffed to a tree.

Kittle, 26, was arrested in Huntingdon, Pa., on a car theft charge.

Model Legislature Opens In Annapolis

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 21 (AP)—Maryland's Model Legislature, an annual YMCA project, convened today in the old State House and was promptly asked to "succeed where our elders failed."

Boy "Governor" Charles E. Moylan, Jr., Baltimore City College student, had a couple of good words for the real General Assembly which adjourned this month.

But he said the youthful legislature is "fortunate in that the adult legislature left us quite a bit to accomplish."

"Machine politics and pressure groups" were mostly to blame, Moylan said.

The 18-year-old son of a Baltimore Supreme Bench judge welcomed 195 Maryland high school boys who will spend the next three days in a mock session of the General Assembly.

Conditions Of Church Merger Are Approved

CLEVELAND, April 21 (AP)—The highest body of the Evangelical and Reformed Church approved today the conditions of a merger with the Congregational Christian Churches. The vote by the General Synod was 249 to 41.

Both denominations already had approved a Basis of Union last June in Oberlin, O., the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches adopted a set of Interpretations, and meeting here February 5, voted to proceed with the merger.

Today the General Synod approved the Interpretations.

Senate Approves

Sen. Neely (D-WVa) told the Senate Taft's move to wipe out the fund was typical of the Republican Party's attitude toward the farmers.

Sen. Capehart (R-Ind) took exception to that. He said only $1,000,000 would be spent on the farms the first year. If that were divided up equally, he said, it would give each of the nation's farmers a total of six cents.

New Quakes In Chile

SANTIAGO, Chile, April 21 (AP)—A new earthquake shook the town of Angol in Central Chile today as President Gabriel Gonzalez Videla inspected the damage from Tuesday's disastrous tremors.

Newspaper Editors Urged To Be On Guard

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP) — American newspaper editors were urged today to be on guard against attempts to hamper a free flow of news at home or abroad.

President Erwin D. Canham cautioned the American Society of Newspaper Editors at the opening of its three-day annual meeting that the United States faces a hard fight in its attempt to get the United Nations to agree to a free international flow of information.

Basil L. Walters, executive editor of the Knight Newspapers, told the society there is a growing tendency, in the United States as well as abroad, to hinder the freedom of information. He said some officials "forget they are the stewards of the people."

Western Maryland May Recapitalize

BALTIMORE, April 21 (AP)— The Western Maryland Railway has been conferring recently with the Interstate Commerce Commission over a tentative recapitalization plan, President Eugene S. Williams informed stockholders yesterday at their annual meeting.

Williams also disclosed that the management has been consulting with the principal holders of first mortgage bonds on the problem of meeting the 1952 maturity deadline for the issue.

W. Arthur Grotz, vice president of the Chase National Bank, New York, was elected to the Western Maryland's Board of directors. As trustee for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, Chase National holds more than 43 per cent of the stock of the Western Maryland.

Scouts Report Grand Old Party Split On Policy

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP)—Republican workers returning from around the country report the party split over policy—highlighted by the recent lecture Sen. Taft, of Ohio, gave his colleagues—is showing up all over.

Taft told his Republican Senate mates, in effect, that if the GOP doesn't show an interest in low income voters by supporting housing, education and state-grant health measures it will lose the 1950 congressional elections.

As an example, Taft was reported to have said in the closed meeting that 10 prominent real estate men in Cleveland would support him if he opposed housing legislation but that any such stand would cost him 50,000 votes in Cleveland in 1950. Taft is backing the pending housing bill.

Taft's assertion sent Sen. Bricker, his Ohio colleague, off on a vigorous defense of the free enterprise system. Bricker is against the federal government's invasion of the housing field and opposes many other welfare measures supported by Taft.

GOP scouts who have been feeling out the temper of the country report that many Republican leaders seem to believe with Bricker—and others—that the time has come to attack the whole of President Truman's legislative program.

These scouts attribute a measure of this feeling to a big residue of anti-Dewey sentiment. They say local leaders blame Dewey for losing last year's election by putting on a "sweetness and light" and a "me too" campaign.

Taft apparently went a long way, however, toward averting a threatened split between him and New England Republicans who class themselves as liberals.

Some of these had been mumbling about what they called the "Ohio tradition." They claimed privately that too much attention was being paid to efforts to reelect Taft at the expense of others they thought represented a more forward-looking Republican viewpoint.

But now they are thumping Taft on the back while the "conservatives" sulk in the corner.

B. And O. Tickets Used Both Ways

A Baltimore and Ohio Railroad ticket or unused part of a ticket may now be used in either direction, M. W. Grove, district passenger agent, has announced.

Formerly, a passenger holding a Cumberland to Washington ticket could use it only in the direction indicated. If he went to Washington without using the ticket, he could not return here on it, but would have to apply for a refund on the ticket and buy one marked "Washington to Cumberland."

The new ruling does not cover stopovers for reduced fare tickets of any type, or for tickets with a destination beyond the B. and O. system.

PITCHING IN A PINCH

By JOHN W. WHEELER

L'Ehovi

No longer will I feel the hot breath of the deadline on the back of my neck, for Monday Mr. Rose resumes in this space with "Pitching Horseshoes." It's a cinch the Bret Harte of Broadway as George Waldo, publisher of the Bridgeport Post, calls him will be welcome back.

Now I can fire my ghost writer. It seems like the night before Christmas. I have always read about big shots in the publishing business like James Gordon Bennett, Joseph Pulitzer, and E. W. Scripps lolling on their yachts and sending pencilled memorandums back to their sweating slaves in the city so perhaps I can concentrate on that idea for a while. All I need is a yacht and some slaves—I have a pencil and a pad of paper.

We will close down with an anecdote about a newspaper correspondent named Junius Wood who ran the First World War with General Pershing, at least you would think so to hear him tell it, especially if Pershing were not around. He was a handsome character, although as bald as two billiard balls and unafraid of Army brass, particularly two-star generals, who looked like sergeants to him.

However, he overmatched himself when he took on Colonel Frank Knox, then publisher of the Chicago Daily News for which Junius worked in Germany. As occurs in all newspaper offices, there was an economy wave and correspondents had been given a monthly cable quota and told to stick to that, which meant each was to limit himself to the number of words allowed to save tolls.

Shortly after this was put into effect, a prominent character named Adolph Hitler started a purge of his top generals and others which, of course, was a world-rocking story. Mr. Wood covered it all right, but in the middle of an exciting report, he inserted.

"For Managing Editor—End of quota—More next month."

As it was only about the fifteenth and here was a red-hot story, his prospect did not seem to be very satisfactory. His boss replied, "Don't be a damn fool. File fully."

But Junius was stubborn about the quota and had been waiting for this chance. His answer came back, "Following instructions. Quota run out."

As soon as Colonel Knox heard about it, Julius ran out, too, for he was fired.

Previously Wood had been sent to Moscow and found the foreign office had a practice of issuing communiques about midnight which were handed out by the cellar attendant at the back door. This surprised Julius so he started his first Russian dispatch:

"According to the communique handed out by the janitor of the Foreign Office last night———"

After the Russians read the report, the system was changed, and the material was delivered in a more dignified way at a more reasonable hour.

In closing I would like to tell a story about old Cy Young, the great Boston pitcher of years ago. A youngster had joined the team in the spring and consulted old Cy about the Big Leaguers. He wanted to know how to pitch to hitters on other clubs.

"I'll tell you, son," answered Cy, "I do the best I can with the ball up to the time it leaves my hand, and, after that, it's up to the batter."

There is a world of sound philosophy in this remark. Anyway, I have done the best I can with this column, and now it's up to Billy Rose to pitch horseshoes.

Circle Plans Silver Tea, Flower Show

The Vandegrift-Martin Circle of the First Presbyterian Church had Miss Margaret L. Reiley, Somerset, Pa., as guest speaker and decided to sponsor a silver tea at the meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harold W. Smith, The Dingle.

The silver tea and flower show is to be held May 25 at the home of Mrs. Lloyd R. Meyers, 225 Washington Street, and is for all the women of the church.

Miss Reiley, who recently returned from Germany and Austria, spoke of the cathedrals in Germany; her visit to Bavaria; and the Youth program being carried on by the United States soldiers in Germany. She spoke intimately about several families she visited. Miss Reiley also displayed numerous articles that several children 12 and 13 years old had knit and crocheted for her. She also showed several hand-carved wooden Christmas decorations.

Mrs. H. C. Rainalter was co-hostess and Mrs. P .G. Ervin conducted the devotionals.

Social Chart

Planning Group No. 4 Farm Bureau, will meet at 8-tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hinkle, Hinkle Road.

Delta Theta Chi will meet Monday at Central YMCA, with Mrs. Ethel Bruce in charge of the educational program.

The Dawson Rod and Gun Club supper will be held at 5 tonight at the Cresaptown church hall.

The Mispah Class of First Baptist Church will meet at 7:30 tonight at the home of Mrs. John Clark, Bedford Road.

The Young Women's Group of First Presbyterian Church will hold a rummage sale from 7 until 9 tonight at the lecture hall.

Miss Venia M. Kellar, College Park, will be honor guest of the RWSC Club at a reception at 7:45 tonight at Central YMCA.

Jaycees Nominate

Robert Little Ebert and David Moreland were nominated for the presidency of the Cumberland Junior Association of Commerce Wednesday night.

Marvin T. Inge, Thomas F. Conlon, Jr., and Harry Kauffman were nominated for vice president. The loser in the race for president will be the fourth candidate for vice president.

Henry Mackey and William Scott, IV, were nominated for secretary and Arthur C. Morgan and Claude E. Nave for treasurer.

The election will be held May 4 at the Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club and nominations will be accepted from the floor.

Don't Forget That Kettle Of Chowder

Since the first days on the continent, the value of the soup kettle and bowl has been recognized. And the thickish chowder-soups have long lasting nourishing powers. When vegetables and rice are combined, plus the milk, it turns out to be a soup that will make nutritionists beam—as it will those who eat it.

Also, if time catches up on you some morning, and noon time comes before you've had time to catch your morning breath, it takes only a short time to bring it to a finish. They'll eat it and enjoy it, and when the bowls are clean, Cook can give herself a pat on the back at what a fine job she is doing with feeding the family cheaply, quickly and well.

Ingredients

½ cup rice
2 Cups water
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups chopped raw vegetables, the combination can be your own, but the combination of onions, turnips, green pepper, celery and carrots is a happy one
3 cups milk

Method

Steam rice and water together until rice is tender. Add chopped vegetables and salt and continue to cook until the vegetables are just tender, adding more water if necessary. Add milk and cook slowly until the soup is thoroughly heated. Re-season to suit your taste.

This should make about six servings, and the vegetables can be varied to suit what is on hand, and the combination to best suit the family tastes.

It is estimated that the economic loss from accidents on American farms is $1,000,000,000 a year.

Chinese Meat Balls

Glorious meat balls! They are always popular and have been honored by song. Only here we don't suggest "One Meat Ball" but from one-half pound of ground beef, there should be enough to make six servings. What more could be asked of a half pound of beef? Only the half pound of beef couldn't do that man-sized job by itself. It calls on a partner, rice—fluffy, hot rice—topped with the seasoned juice of the meat balls to play the major roll. They make an undauntible pair for an inexpensive main dish. And the name, also adds charm. When it is just meat balls on rice for dinner, that doesn't hold so much charm, but if it is "Chinese Meat Balls" then they immediately arouse real appetite interest.

Also, this combination has the added beauty of cooking the vegetables for the meal right along with the meat dish.

Ingredients

½ pound ground beef
1 cup white rice
1 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons fat
¼ cup diced onion
1 cup diced celery
1 cup sliced carrots
2 cups cooked lima beans
1 cup beef broth, or that made with a bouillon cube or that which comes from a can as consumme
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon soy sauce
¼ cup water

Method

Melt fat. Add salt to meat. Make meat into small balls. Brown balls in fat. Add onion and cook until tender. Add celery, carrots, lima beans and broth. Cover and cook for 15 minutes. Blend cornstarch, soy sauce and water. Add to hot mixture and stir until thick and thoroughly blended. By this time the meat balls will be cooked and tender and all will be ready to be poured onto a bed of hot fluffy rice and make a striking appearance at the table.

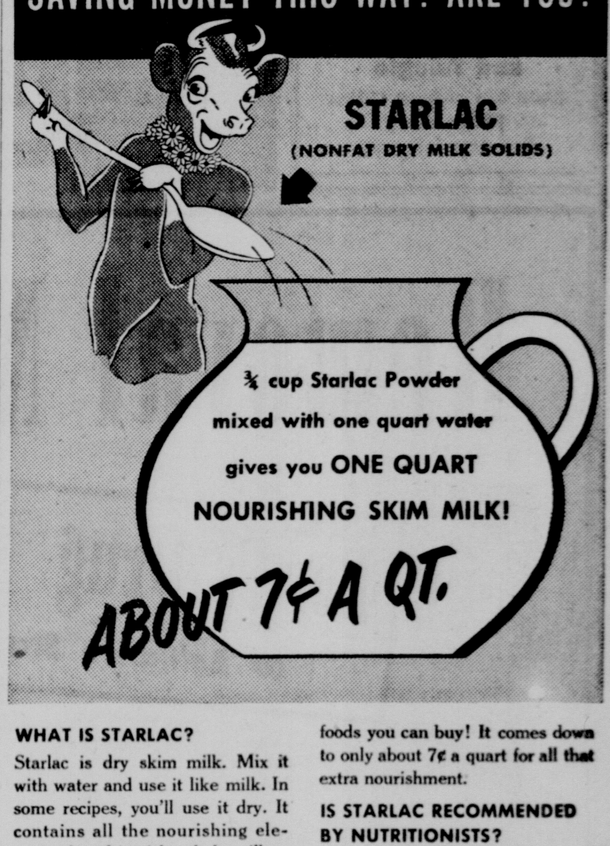
THOUSANDS OF HOUSEWIVES ARE SAVING MONEY THIS WAY! ARE YOU?



WHAT IS STARLAC?

Starlac is dry skim milk. Mix it with water and use it like milk. In some recipes, you'll use it dry. It contains all the nourishing elements found in rich, whole milk—except fat and vitamin A (plentiful in other foods).

IS STARLAC EASY TO COOK WITH?

Starlac's as easy to use as baking powder. Just add dry Starlac to recipe and make smooth, flavor-rich: Cocoa! Bread! Cakes! Muffins! Sauces! Casserole Dishes! Soups!

IS STARLAC ECONOMICAL?

Yes, one of the most economical foods you can buy! It comes down to only about 7¢ a quart for all that extra nourishment.

IS STARLAC RECOMMENDED BY NUTRITIONISTS?

U.S. Dept. of Agriculture says: "When children lacking in (riboflavin and calcium) were given dry (skim) milk in meals, their growth improved markedly!

IS STARLAC EASY TO KEEP?

Dry Starlac can't spoil! Liquid Starlac keeps just like regular milk in your refrigerator! Get Starlac today!

Rice Helps Utilize The Last Precious Morsel Of That Ham

That last bit of the ham is a precious bit! With this recipe, there can be one more delicious meal before the naked bone goes to the split pea soup pot. That extra meal off a ham may be what changes the purchase from a luxury to an economical buy. But one cup of stray ham needs a bit of bolstering before it can go forth as a main dish for a hearty meal. That, my friends, is where rice gives charming support and results in a dish that doesn't come out of a hobble—but as a grand march to popularity.

Ingredients

2 large onions, 2 green peppers, 1 cup chopped, frayed ham, 3 tablespoons bacon drippings or other fat, 2 cups cooked rice, 2 cups canned tomatoes ½ teaspoon salt.

Method

Cut onions and peppers in small pieces and saute lightly in the fat. Add rice, tomatoes, salt and ham. Mix well. Pour into a greased casserole or baking dish and bake in a moderate oven for about 25 to 30 minutes in a 350 or 375 degree oven. It doesn't matter which, but use the one that is most convenient for any other cooking that is being done for the meal.

Preparing the Fluffy White Rice:

Put 1 cup of white rice, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 cups cold water in a two-quart saucepan. Cover with a tight-fitting lid. Set over a hot flame until it boils vigorously. Then reduce the heat as low as possible and simmer for 14 minutes more. During this time the rice will absorb the water and come out deliciously tender. Remove the lid to permit the rice to steam dry. Lift rice with a fork to test its consistency. Never stir rice while cooking—and the grains will be separate and tender. Makes approximately 3⅓ cups fluffy white rice. Keep left-over cooked rice in a covered bowl in refrigerator you'll find it handy next time you're in a hurry to fix a quick meal.

Pork Chops With Orange Dressing

For something new and different, try a sunny orange dressing with tender juicy pork chops. This is an easy-to-make dish which may be baked in a casserole or skillet.

- 4 pork chops
- 1⅓ cups day old bread crumbs
- 1 tablespoon minced onions
- ¼ cup finely cut celery
- ½ cup diced orange pulp
- ½ teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- ¼ teaspoon thyme
- ½ cup water

Combine bread crumbs with onion, celery, orange pulp, grated orange rind, sugar, and seasonings. Mix thoroughly with a fork. Flour chops and brown in a little hot fat. Leave chops in a skillet or transfer to a large greased casserole. Top each chop with a mound of dressing. Pour water around chops, cover and bake in a moderate oven, 350° F., for 45 minutes. Remove the cover during the last 15 minutes to brown and crisp the dressing.

Now-when living costs are so high-I'm extra thankful for delicious "bowl-mix" Nucoa!

I can buy 2 pounds of Nucoa at a time and have real change left from a dollar!

Plenty of Nucoa for both table use and cooking still gives you savings out of a dollar that help buy other nourishing foods!

And with Nucoa there's no 2 to 3 cents extra tacked on for a "squeeze bag"-I pay only for quality!

True! And you can color 2 pounds of "bowl-mix" Nucoa together, doing the job half as often and nearly twice as fast as squeeze-mixing one pound at a time.

Good Breakfast Is Shortcut To Feeling Better Every Day

Fine and dandy! Is that the answer you give when someone asks you how you feel in the morning? And is it a really true answer?

There's a shortcut to feeling fine and dandy every day. That shortcut is the investment of a mere 15 minutes spent eating a good breakfast. That gives you at least an even chance to feel fine when you face that busy housework, desk, counter, workbench, or how do you spend your morning ?

A good breakfast gives you the zest you want, the feeling of reserve energy that gets you to your goal of a morning smooth as sunshine. Without that good breakfast, the morning clouds right up. You've left yourself easy prey for headaches, fumbling in your work, and the kind of irritability that may make you a rival of the terrible-tempered Mr. Bang.

It's so simple to know you've had a good, nutritious breakfast that no one need miss a single one. Here's a guide to choosing foods that will stand by you for the food values you need. Follow a basic breakfast pattern of fruit, cereal, milk, bread and butter. That's all. That'll give you the fourth to a third of the day's food values that you should have at breakfast. And it's so easy to vary!

For instance, there are nearly two dozen different cereals to make that course catchy with appetite-appeal from morning to morning. As for fruits, well, you count them. Bread is a varied food today, much different from our yesteryears, and so the basic breakfast pattern goes, varied as you please and so easy to do.

Here are some appetizing samples of the delicious (and thrifty) breakfasts that will see you happily through.

Orange Juice
Fried Farina Date Slices*
Maple Syrup
Rolls Butter
Milk

Farina Date Slices

Cook farina or granular wheat cereal according to directions on the package. All ⅔ cup of chopped dates (or other dried fruit), stir well, and pour into a loaf pan. Chill until firm. Unmold, slice thin. Saute in a small amount of butter or fat, turning to brown on both sides. Serve hot with syrup or preserves.

Dried Fruit Compote with Lemon Garnish
Puffed Cereal Milk
Twisted Coffee Cake Butter
Beverage

Grapefruit and Prune Juice
Oatmeal Milk
Toasted Split Rolls
Blackberry Jam
Beverage

Cinnamon Flavored Applesauce
Farina Milk
Bacon Muffins* Butter
Beverage

Bacon Muffins

1 Cup sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons Baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
1 Tablespoon sugar
1 egg
⅔ Cup milk
3 tablespoons melted fat
1 cup wheat flakes
⅓ cup crumbled cooked bacon

To sifted flour, add baking powder,, salt, sugar, and resift. Beat egg; combine with milk and slightly cooled fat, and add to dry ingredients. Stir only enogh to dampen flour. Fold in flakes and bacon, being careful not to over-mix. Fill well-greased muffin pans ⅔ full. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) about 25 minutes. Yield: 12 2-inch muffins.

Sliced Oranges
Crisp Rice Cereal Milk
Buttered Whole Wheat Toast
Grape Conserve
Beverage
* * *
Tomato Juice
Cereal Medley Milk
Buttered English Muffins
Marmalade
Beverage

Breakfast Fashion Note: It's smart to make cereal medleys by combining different ready to eat cereals in the same bowl. Suggestions are corn flakes with wheat and barley kernels; puffed cereal with wheat shreds; whole bran with rice flakes.

Country Style Sausage With Sauerkraut

A homey dinner of country style sausage with sauerkraut may not be long on style, but it has plenty in the way of flavor. For this tasty twosome, you can use fresh or smoked country sausage, either in links or in short lengths cut from the coil.

1 pound country style sausage, fresh or smoked
1 No. 2½ can sauerkraut
1 tart apple
1 small onion
5 cloves
1 teaspoon caraway seed
2 tablespoons brown sugar.

Simmer the sauerkraut with the chopped apple, onion, seasonings, and sugar for ½ hour. Meanwhile, place the sausage links or short lengths in a skillet with ½ cup water. Bring water to a boil, then reduce heat, cover and cook slowly until water evaporates. Remove cover and brown sausage well on all sides. Serve hot kraut topped with sausage. (If smoked sausage is used, the links may be cooked on top of the kraut without browning.)

The dolphin usually gives birth to but one young annually, and is a devoted parent.

Mrs. Gabriel Heatter Puts On Blue Bonnet —Gets Big Hand

Like Mrs. Gabriel Heatter—news analyst's wife—you, too, will get a big hand when you put on BLUE BONNET (Margarine, that is). A big hand for its country-sweet FLAVOR! A big hand for its rich NUTRITION! A big hand for ECONOMY! For when you put on BLUE BONNET you get ALL THREE—Flavor, Nutrition, Econom-e-e! Put it on your table, on vegetables, on bread. You can color it yellow in a flash (just 2 minutes!)—because it's in the famous Yellow Quik bag!

A New Way to Make Better Bread -Quicker, Easier!

ROBIN HOOD
White Bread

Recipe by Rita Martin

2 tbsp. salt
¼ cup sugar
4 cups lukewarm liquid (if milk is used, scald and cool to lukewarm)
12-12½ cups sifted ROBIN HOOD ENRICHED FLOUR
2 cakes comp. yeast or 2 packages dry granular yeast
3 tbsp. lukewarm water
¼ cup shortening, melted, cooled

ADD—sugar and salt to liquid; let yeast stand 5 min. in lukewarm water.

BEAT—2 cups flour into liquid mixture using rotary beater; add yeast mixture and beat again.

ADD—4 cups flour, beat until smooth; then mix in shortening. Stir in remaining flour, mix thoroughly; turn onto lightly floured board, cover and let rest about 10 min.

KNEAD—until smooth and satiny (about 5 minutes).

ROUND UP—dough, place in a large greased bowl. Cover with damp cloth, set in warm place (85° F.) and let rise until double (about 1½-2 hrs.)

PUNCH DOWN—and let rise again until nearly double. (May omit this 2nd rising to save time).

CUT—dough in 4 equal parts, round up, cover and let rest about 10 min. on lightly floured board.

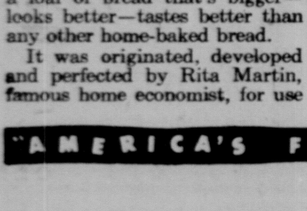
*SHAPE—into loaves and place in well greased bread pans. (See easy illustrated method below).

COVER—lightly and set in a warm place, allowing dough to rise until sides reach top of pan and corners are filled (about 1½ hours). Dough should feel light to the touch.

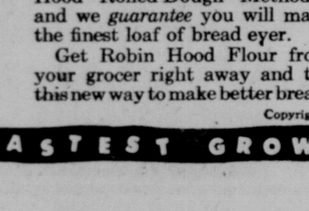
BAKE—in moderately hot oven, 375° F., about 50 minutes.

YIELD—4 Loaves.

*Use new Robin Hood "Rolled Dough" Method for shaping perfect loaves of better bread.



Step 1. With rolling pin, roll dough out to uniform thickness, stretching by hand to form rectangle approximately 9" x 12". Make certain to break down all gas bubbles in the outer edge of the dough.



Step 2. From upper edge, roll dough toward you, jelly roll fashion, sealing dough with heel of hand after each roll of dough. (About four turns will bring you to last seal.) Be sure to seal final seam on bottom of loaf.

Step 3. Seal ends of the loaf by using the side of the hand to get thin sealed strip.

Step 4. Fold sealed ends of loaf under, using fingers, as above. Avoid tearing dough.

Step 6. Proceed in usual way for raising and baking . . . for a perfect loaf every time!

9 Out of 10 Women Say New Robin Hood "Rolled Dough" Method Gives Them The Finest Bread They Ever Baked

Now! Home bread baking easier than ever before—with never-fail results! Women who bake bread several times a week—women who had never baked bread before—all agree that this new Robin Hood "Rolled Dough" Method is easy, gives a perfect loaf every time.

With this new method you get a loaf of bread that's bigger—looks better—tastes better than any other home-baked bread.

It was originated, developed and perfected by Rita Martin, famous home economist, for use with Robin Hood Flour. You cannot get the same perfect results with any other flour. Only Robin Hood Flour and the Robin Hood "Rolled Dough" Method together can produce such large, uniform loaves.

Use the recipe for Robin Hood White Bread on this page—follow the easy step-by-step Robin Hood "Rolled Dough" Method—and we guarantee you will make the finest loaf of bread eyer.

Citrus Fruits Pare Off The Extra Pounds

When it come to counting calories, you can count Florida grapefruit and oranges among your best allies. They furnish flavor, variety, and worlds of Vitamin C to maintain good health and help build up resistance, but their calorie count is so low you'll be tempted for more reasons than one to include them in every meal of the day in place of fattening foods.

At the peak of their goodness during this season of the year, they are easy to section for use in salads and fruit cups, and so juicy you'll find getting a big glassful every morning no chore at all.

Chill fruit before preparing. To section, cut off peel in strips from top to bottom, cutting deep enough to remove white membrane. Then cut slice from top and bottom. Go over fruit again removing any remaining white membrane. Cut along side of each dividing membrane from outside to middle of core. Remove section by section, over bowl, to retain juice from fruit. If desired, sections may be sprinkled lightly with sugar.

Fruit Medley

Arrange Florida grapefruit sections on salad greens with melon balls and sliced strawberries or cherries. Garnish with watercress. Serve with French dressing.

Spring Salad

Make individual tomato aspic ring molds. Unmold and fill centers with Florida grapefruit sections. Serve with mayonnaise or French dressing.

Cottage Cheese Charmer

Arrange Florida grapefruit sections on salad greens. Add scoop of cottage cheese to which onion juice or chopped chives have been added. Serve with French dressing.

Spring Beauty

Alternate Florida orange and grapefruit sections on salad greens. Pile small grapes at side. Garnish with mint. Serve with French dressing made with Florida grapefruit juice.

Super Hamburgers

There's nothing more disappointing than a hard, dry hamburger. Here's a recipe for an especially juicy and tender 'burger made with evaporated milk and egg yolk. It's delicately flavored with caraway seed. If desired, 2 tablespoons chopped onion may be substituted for the seeds.

- 1 pound ground beef
- ⅓ cup evaporated milk
- 1 egg yolk
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 1 teaspoon caraway seed

Mix ingredients together and shape into 4 patties. Broil or fry.

Space Saving Kitchen Plans

Adroit planning of available space and installation of modern equipment can make the smallest kitchen an efficient and attractive workroom for the busy homemaker.

The counter surfaces on either side of the sink are regarded by many home management specialists as the most important areas in the kitchen. By planning the arrangement of other equipment carefully, adequate counter space can be provided in most kitchens. Generally, it is considered ideal if the right-hand counter is at least 36 inches long and the left-hand counter 32 inches in length. Shorter counter surfaces than these usually mean extra work in doing dishes. Also, jobs such as preparing vegetables will be cramped and awkward if counter space is not adequate. If the homemaker must economize on space in the kitchen, it is wise to do it elsewhere.

Recent innovations in all types of home equipment have made the task of space economy much simpler. For example, where a bulky cast iron radiator once stood, the modern kitchen is equipped with one of the new type heating units such as the recessed or free-standing convector radiator which occupies but one-fourth the space of the old unit. The actual heating element of the convector, usually made of copper or aluminum, is enclosed in a streamlined metal cabinet that may be painted easily to complement the decorative scheme of the kitchen—a welcome contrast to the gilt-covered radiators of old.

The controllability of modern heating units is a distinct advantage, especially in the kitchen where temperatures are likely to fluctuate greatly from hour to hour. The light weight of the convector unit means that it heats up and cools down rapidly whenever changes in heat output are desired.

Space may be conserved in the kitchen by proper selection of the cooking range. By choosing a small range, the homemaker need sacrifice little in cooking convenience and nothing in the quality of meals prepared.

Many more new and improved products are on the market to make home kitchens—large or small—fully convenient, efficient and attractive. It is up to the homemaker to work out the best plan for the kitchen that best suits her needs, and to choose equipment accordingly.

More than 2,000 years ago Pythagoras propounded the theory that images were produced in the eye by particles emitted by the object, says the president of the American Optometric association, Dr. John B. O'Shea. This idea has been in discard for centuries, but the modern quantum theory of light is quite similar.

Primary eduction in Switzerland has been free and compulsory since 1874, and there is complete freedom of worship in the country.

EVERYONE THAT COOKS will love this remarkably new and different saucepan. It's so easy and handy to use! Saves time, saves work, saves food, but most important — the wonderful self-drain, self-strain feature eliminates the constant danger of hot steam burns on arms and face. Comes in gleaming aluminum with "no-burn" bakelite handle and knob. Just twist the snug-fitting cover to DRAIN when cooking is completed and safely strain off the boiling water without spilling food or using extra strainers and pot holders. This exciting cooking discovery is a must for every kitchen.

Opportunities In Teaching Outlined

Area high school seniors are coming to realize the opportunities in the teaching profession, Patrick J. Carroll, local office manager of the Department of Employment Security, said yesterday.

He added that Maryland pays its teachers a minimum of $2,400 a year. Free tuition is given at Frostburg State Teachers College, which can be easily reached from points in the county, and the demand for teachers is on the increase, he declared.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Seven veteran book salesmen were registered at the Muehlbach hotel in Kansas City over a weekend, and a poker game was the natural consequence. At about 4 a.m., when excitement was high and the liquor supply low, one of the contestants suddenly dropped dead. "What do we do now?" asked an awestricken survivor. Another answered. "Take out the deuces and trays."

That heartless tale reminds me of the time Frank Adams. flush was topped by a full house: three twos and two threes. "Damnation," moaned Adams. "I've been trayduced."

Marion Dodd, the peppery manager of the Hampshire Bookshop (enshrined in the memory of every Smith College graduate) decided to mail the old family Bible to her cousin in Texas. The post-office clerk in Northampton weighed the package and asked, "Does this contain anything breakable?" Miss Dodd pondered a moment, then answered, "Nothing but the Ten Commandments."

Physician Tells Story Of Attack On British Ships

Following is an eyewitness account of the Yangtze River battle Wednesday between the British Destroyer HMS Consort and Chinese Communist shore batteries. This description was given by Dr. R. G. Wedderburn, former Royal Air Force physician, who answered an emergency call to help wounded seamen from the British sloop Amethyst which was also attacked.

By DR. R. G. WEDDERBURN
As Told To International News Service

SHANGHAI, April 21—(INS)—I was asked to stand by to fly to Nanking to help treat survivors of the Amethyst disaster at about noon Wednesday.

I rushed out to the airport and found a United States Navy plane just about to take off. They flagged down the plane and I scrambled aboard.

Arriving over the scene of the Amethyst) lay slightly heeling over thousand feet or so and distinctly saw a British destroyer which we took to be the Consort steaming up and down in mid-river.

We saw water spouts all around her as Communist shells fell short or went over.

We also saw puffs of smoke as Consort shells landed on the north bank.

There was no doubt that it was the batteries on the north bank and therefore presumably Communist, which were engaging the British ship.

One disabled British vessel (the Amethysa) lay slightly heeling over the northern point of a pear-shaped island. She was apparently unable to fire although we saw men scrambling about the ship and guessed they were engaged in trying to reflate her.

Meanwhile the destroyer steamed angrily up and down between the stricken vessel and the Communist guns like a terrier with a white bone between her teeth, her guns belching sharply and vigorously in reply to sustained shelling from the shore.

Everyone in the plane was seized with the sense of the drama being played out on the muddy waters beneath. All the spirit and good comradeship of the Navy seemed to be summed up in this brief porthole view of one vessel protecting another.

We circled for about five minutes and could not but help sympathize with the men who were so summarily thrust into the middle of great events.

At that time none of us knew how many casualties there were but from the intensity of the fire guessed there must be a good many.

As the only Britisher in the plane I felt a queer kind of pride in my fellow countrymen down below.

The term "Fifth Column" originated with Spain's General Franco when he was advancing on Madrid in 1939 and declared he was attacking with four columns outside the city and a "fifth column" within.

Westminster Abbey was originally established by Edward the Confessor—1049-65; it was built by Henry III and Edward I. All England's kings and queens have been crowned in the Abbey.

Schusterman Let Out As Local Shop Chairman

Arthur Schusterman, named as a local witness at the New York trial of 11 top Reds, has been relieved of his duties as a department shop chairman at the Celanese.

Playford Aldridge, president of Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America, anounced Schusterman's removal in a letter yesterday to Edward R. Allen, Celanese personnel superintendent.

Schusterman, veteran TWUA member, was removed because of failure to sign a non-Communist affidavit required under a ruling by the union at a meeting last month, Aldridge said.

Schusterman was recently elected to the post of shop chairman in the Finished Fabric Examination Department without opposition. Aldridge's letter to Allen said a previous comunication listing Schusterman as shop chairman was to be disregarded.

He added that Lee Emerson, shop chairman for Dye House, will represent the union in the Dye House, Raw and Finished Fabric Examination departments and in the Finished Fabric Warehouse.

Schusterman, the union president said, was the only shop chairman in the plant to refuse to sign the oath. Aldridge declared the union's action was not influenced by testimony of a self-avowed former member of a New York Communist cell, Tuesday.

Charles Nicodemus, Dawson, one of the federal government's witnesses and a member of the Celanese local, said Schusterman recruited him for the Communist Party.

Nicodemus, who said he was a member of the party from 1937 to 1946, declared that secret orders received here in 1940 from Communist headquarters called for mapping of the Celanese plant, then engaged in defense work.

Schusterman, contacted concerning Nicodemus' charge said he had "no comment" to make.

Long prominent in union activities, Schusterman was president in 1938 and recording secretary in 1946, but has not been on any slate in the union's general elections since 1946, present officials reported.

Dorsey Freed On $500 Bond

John William Dorsey, 19, 232 Williams Street, accused of burglary at a local cafe, was released under $500 bond yesterday for grand jury action after waiving a preliminary hearing in Trial Magistrates Court.

Police said the youth entered Keller's Cafe, 510 Park Street, early Wednesday morning and took currency and merchandise valued at $176.51. The stolen merchandise was found in a car parked near Louisiana Avenue and Hill Top Drive. Lt. James E. Van said Dorsey admitted the entry.

Yesterday, police were informed an intruder broke a window in the American Repair Shop, 125 Henry Street, and stole a box of clock and watch tools valued at $150 without entering the building. A neighbor reported hearing glass breaking at 2:20 a. m., but could not see the thief.

A 1941 Studebaker sedan owned by the National Discount Corporation was stolen Wednesday from Thomas Street. Paul E. Beaver, 321½ Beall Street, reported the top of his car was cut while the machine was parked on Frederick Street Wednesday night. He estimated damage at $35.

Housing Expediter Rules On Evictions

Under the new federal rent law effective April 1, evictions are back under the jurisdiction of the Housing Expediter, according to Area Rent Director Walter R. Heath, Baltimore.

The evictions come in two classes, Heath explained, those which must have certificates issued by the local Area Rent Office, and those which need no certificate. However, in the non-certificate eviction, the landlord must give written notice to the tenant and local office before he can take action in court.

Heath said a copy of the notice must be filed with the Area Rent Office within 24 hours after it is given to the tenant.

Information on which types of evictions require certificates and which do not may be obtained at the Cumberland office in the basement of the Postoffice Building.

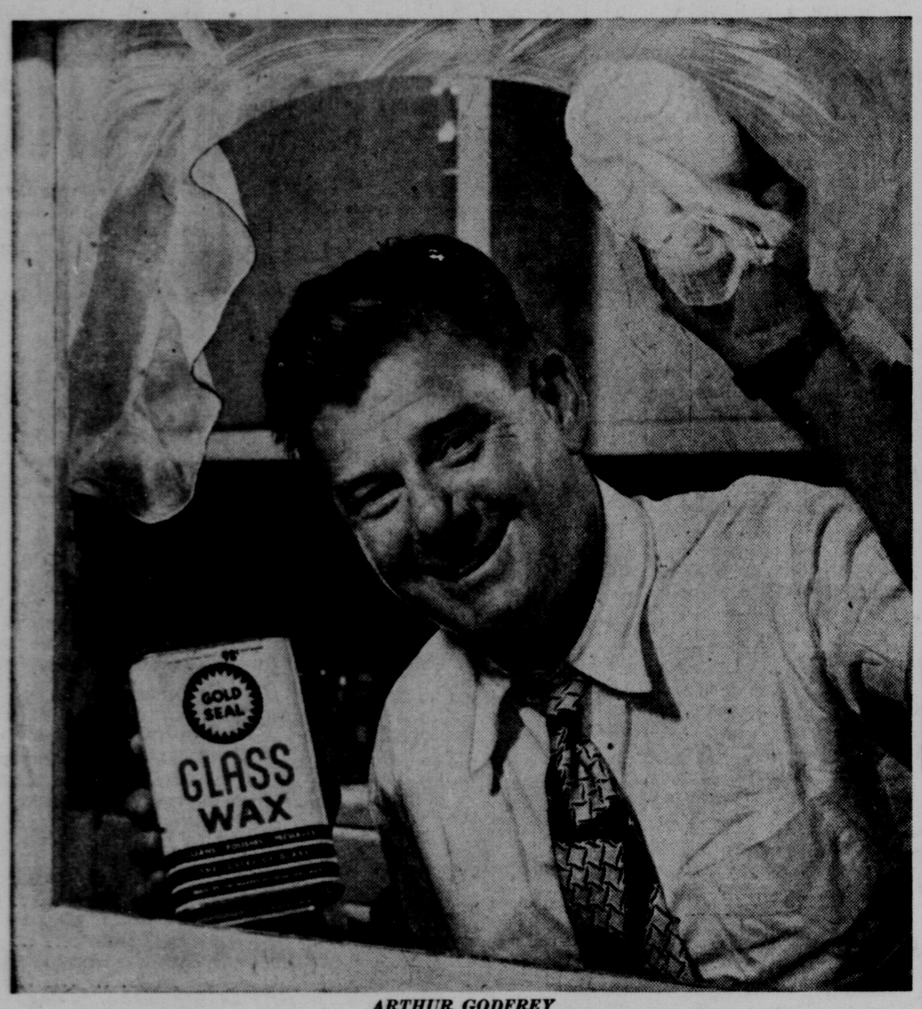
"GLASS WAX" SAVES CLEAN-UP TIME, TOIL

Amazing Gold Seal Cleaner Wipes Winter Stains From Windows, Metals, Porcelain



ARTHUR GODFREY

"If You've Got Windows You Need 'GLASS WAX'", says Arthur Godfrey

Gold Seal Radio Show Features Top Entertainer Daily

"Just wi-i-ipe it on, then wi-i-ipe it off. That's all there is to it!" That's how Arthur Godfrey, hilarious radio attraction describes how quick and easy it is to clean with "GLASS WAX". And it's a fact that this Gold Seal chemical cuts housework drudgery to a matter of minutes just that simply.

Heard Every Weekday

The Gold Seal Show presents the inimitable Godfrey every weekday over 165 CBS stations. The popular program includes Janette Davis, lovely singer, the Mariners Quartet, and pleasing music provided by Archie Bleyer's orchestra. It's a pleasant way of enjoying the extra leisure gained by cleaning with "GLASS WAX". See your newspaper for local broadcast time of this outstanding radio presentation.

Local Gold Seal Sales Office

The sales office of the Gold Seal Company, makers of "GLASS WAX" is now located at 1266 Commercial Trust Building, Philadelphia 2, Tel: Locust 4-3840-1.

Priceless Silver Cleaned With "GLASS WAX"

Only Cleaner Trusted For Historic Pieces

The nation's finest privately owned collection of rare drinking vessels is cleaned exclusively with "GLASS WAX". According to its owner, Francis W. Fowler, Jr., the amazing Gold Seal pink chemical provides the quickest and easiest method of maintaining the 500-odd items in the gleaming condition necessary for their display. The crystal-clear film that "GLASS WAX" leaves to protect lustre aids greatly by prolonging the period between cleanings.

Absolute Safety A Must

Most important, of course, is the fact that "GLASS WAX" is safe—entirely free of any harsh abrasive that might even minutely scratch these precious surfaces. Dangerous brushing, too, is eliminated in the chemical cleaning action afforded by "GLASS WAX". Mr. Fowler's choice of cleaner for his remarkable collection is supported by many leading silversmiths who recommend "GLASS WAX" for all plate and sterling.

This unusual hobby has been exhibited across the country and has been the subject of many newspaper and magazine articles as well.

400 YEAR-OLD SILVER CUPS CLEANED WITH "GLASS WAX"

Letters Hail "GLASS WAX" Speed, Ease

From all over the country, letters praising "GLASS WAX" flow into Gold Seal Company offices every day. Here are excerpts from a few recent unsolicited tributes:

"I have never found anything before like 'GLASS WAX' that would clean windows, mirrors and not leave a smear . . . I sure think it is grand."

Mrs. C. A. Wright
Detroit, Michigan

"I thought 'I'll use 'GLASS WAX' for my windows and see how it works,' as I had never had much luck with other window cleaners. Well, I can honestly say I never saw such gleaming windows before."

Mrs. Eileen Neidringhaus
Creve Coeur, Missouri

"SO EASY AND NEAT A CHILD CAN USE IT . . . AND FIND IT FUN!", WRITES ONE WOMAN

"'GLASS WAX' worked wonders. There is no sign whatsoever of those persistent streaks on my mirrors, and the mirror stays clean so much longer than from any other glass preparations on the market."

Mrs. Ruby M. Frain
Los Angeles, California

"I never used such a good cleaner as 'GLASS WAX' that made things shine, and I do mean shine, with such little effort."

Mrs. R. O. Hebert
Norwell, Massachusetts

"Comparing the costs of various other products to do the things which this one chemical does, plus the saving in time and labor, 'GLASS WAX' is truly the most economical and efficient cleaner I've ever come across."

Mrs. Virgil Oliver
Studio City, California

"When I first tried 'GLASS WAX', I thought I'd have to use as much as I did with other cleaners to get my grimy windows clean. Imagine my surprise when I found that so little 'GLASS WAX' was needed to do a superlative job. Besides, using a small amount never leaves any dust to be cleaned up later."

Mrs. H. F. McGinnis
Chicago, Illinois

"My pewter is at last clean—it sparkles—the very first cleaner that has done the trick."

Mrs. Gladys F. Andersen
North Quincy, Massachusetts

"Wherever possible in my housecleaning work, I use 'GLASS WAX'. It has everything else on the market beat."

Mrs. Mary Kohl
Bronx, New York

"As you can imagine, I've tried every cleaner ever marketed—powder, paste, liquid, and spray. But now, thanks to 'GLASS WAX', I tackle the job with nary a frown, and keep 944 small window panes bright and clean with just a weekly dusting."

Mrs. Frank G. Matthews
Spokane, Washington

"Glass Wax" Sold Coast to Coast

So great has been the enthusiasm for "GLASS WAX" that this Gold Seal miracle has obtained nationwide acceptance in just a few short months. Grocery, drug, variety, hardware, and department stores in this city now sell the pink liquid cleaner.

Holland Tunnel Cleaned With "GLASS WAX"

"From wedding rings to the Holland Tunnel" is a broad claim for any cleaner. Yet, that statement is actually true of the capabilities of "GLASS WAX".

To keep the mile-long tile-walled tube clean, a specially constructed truck shoots water at high pressure on the walls. However, while rinsing off loose dirt, this method fails to remove stubborn stain that mars the tile.

27% Brighter

After experimentation, engineers found that "GLASS WAX" offered the quickest and easiest way to keep the tile walls glistening. Moreover, they discovered that the hundreds of lights and lenses that illuminate the tunnel give off 27% more light after "GLASS WAX" cleaning.

Now the Holland Tunnel sparkles like your kitchen, protected by the famous "GLASS WAX" film that keeps surfaces clean longer.

Ends Scrubbing, Scouring To Brighten Homes

Millions of housewives have found the answer to lightening spring house-cleaning. It's "GLASS WAX", the sensational new multi-purpose household cleaner developed by the Gold Seal Co.

Never before have women known such speed and ease in erasing winter's smoke and smudge, restoring glistening beauty throughout the house. Windows so clean they scarcely seem to be there . . . silver and chrome brighter than new . . . porcelain, tile, and enamel fixtures snow-white . . . all are possible with this amazing pink chemical. So many wonderful uses for "GLASS WAX" exist that most experienced users buy the pink wonder by the quart, to assure an adequate supply.

Most remarkable about "GLASS WAX" is that these brilliant results are obtained with a minimum of time and effort. All that's required is to wipe "GLASS WAX" on, wipe it off.

Invisible Film Guards Lustre

Important to all fastidious homemakers is the crystal-clear protective film left by this wonderful chemical on every surface as it cleans. This means household beauty that lasts, free of fingerprints, smudges, and stain. Easier future cleaning, too, results from this modern way of housecleaning.

Letting chemicals do the work, rather than muscles, "GLASS WAX" eliminates back-breaking scrubbing and scouring. Moreover, "GLASS WAX" is safely gentle, contains no harsh abrasives to scratch the smoothest surface.

This sensational Gold Seal Co. product is available everywhere, in the familiar pink can that assures the buyer of the genuine and original. With the busy cleaning season at hand, the time to buy "GLASS WAX" is now.

Economy, Variety of Uses Make Quart Size Popular

Thrifty Shoppers Save 20c

With new uses for "GLASS WAX" discovered almost daily, more and more women are buying this incredible cleaner in the quart size. Homemakers find that the big quart can gives them added convenience, plus extra savings. At only 98c, buying "GLASS WAX" by the quart assures a more adequate supply on hand for the hundreds of housecleanings jobs that "GLASS WAX" simplifies, and lessens the bother of frequent shopping.

Experienced "GLASS WAX" users are elated to discover that so little of this cleaning marvel does so much. Not only does sparing use mean increased economy, but after-dust . . . the result of using too much "GLASS WAX" . . . is also eliminated.

Another important advantage is that "GLASS WAX" goes right on working for weeks after cleaning, by leaving its crystal-clear protective film to guard the glistening, immaculate finish from future soil and smudge.

"GLASS WAX" Saves Steps

By cleaning such a variety of surfaces—glass, metals, porcelain, plastic, and others—"GLASS WAX" saves hundreds of tiresome steps about the house. For "GLASS WAX" replaces the variety of cleansers formerly needed for household care, and lets the user carry only the one pink can, two cloths, from room to room. In addition, since "GLASS WAX" requires no water, furnishings may be cleaned where they are used, rather than lugged to and from the kitchen for washing.

Sensational Pink Liquid Cleans Throughout House

Shown above are some of the hundreds of uses for "GLASS WAX" that have made the quart size standard in so many homes.

This amazing pink chemical cleans all these surfaces—and many more—with unbelievable speed, ease, and truly satisfying results.

1. Cleans mirrors as quickly, easily, and brightly as windows. No water to spill, no streaks or smears, no hard rubbing.
2. Removes stains and smudges from porcelain ranges, refrigerators, and tabletops without scouring or scratching.
3. Wipes off tarnish, however stubborn, from the finest plate or sterling silver. No messy paste, no harsh abrasives.
4. Strips stain and scorch from toasters, waffle-irons, other chrome appliances. Keeps them clean longer.
5. Restores brilliance to plastic radios, telephones, purses, any plastic surface—makes them like new. Resists fingerprints.
6. Brightens tile and enamel bathroom fixtures as it cleans. Brings dazzling beauty without scrubbing, or scarring.

Chemists Find 30 Kinds of Dirt on Glass

While developing "GLASS WAX," Gold Seal chemists collected and studied sample window panes from homes in many states. Analysis revealed 30 different kinds of dirt and discoloration.

- Greasy soot streaks and salt water minerals dirtied glass in eastern mill towns.
- Sticky pollens, lime dust and tars dulled midwestern windows.
- Stubborn silica deposits stole the gleam from southern and western panes.

Guarantee Backs "GLASS WAX"

Laboratory proof of "GLASS WAX" superior quality and results enables the Gold Seal Company to guarantee satisfaction to the user. If you are dissatisfied for any reason, your dealer will gladly refund the full purchase price upon receipt of the unused portion of "GLASS WAX."

"GLASS WAX" is a registered trademark and is the exclusive property of Gold Seal Company.

Much Depends On Intentions Of China Reds

By JAMES D. WHITE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21—(AP)—Did the Chinese Reds know what they were shooting at when they fired on those two British warships in the Yangtze River?

A great deal depends on the answer to this question.

There is an outside chance that they did not know. They were shooting at nationalist warships at the time. They may have thought the two British ships were just more nationalist vessels flying British flags as a ruse. The Communists are quite capable of thinking that. If a mistake was made, it can be cleared up in time.

But the probability is that the Communists knew what they were doing.

If they did, it means that they have decided to go all the way this time—liberate (as they call it) the rest of China by force if necessary, and not be considerate of foreign feelings in the process.

From their standpoint foreign feelings don't matter yet because no foreign government recognizes them. Anything that stands between them and victory is likely to get hurt, and when that something is foreign and its presence acts—even unintentionally—as a shield to Nanking, the Reds are not likely to be more considerate, but rather less. They know that no one is going to say he didn't know there was a civil war going on.

However, the implications of the step are still bigger.

In recent days the Red radio has harped on two themes. One is that the Reds are ready and determined to conquer the rest of China by arms if Nanking doesn't come to terms and surrender. Nanking, apparently, has not done this, and the Red answer has been a general offensive along the north bank of the Yangtze.

The second theme has been a series of broadcasts in which the Reds have sided more vehemently than ever before on Russia's side of the cold war. This has been done by attacking the Atlantic Pact as a plot by the "aggressive American bloc" to foment a third world war.

Day after day this theme has been repeated; the Red radio has said many times that the "forces of democracy" meaning Communist peoples and their sympathizers—far outnumber those on the American side of this world.

Britain, France, and all the other signatories of the Atlantic Pact are lumped among the alleged forces of aggression, the greatest of which, of course, is America, according to the Reds.

The Red radio has charged that a Pacific Pact similar to the Atlantic Pact is being cooked up, and has vowed that the people of China will be among the first to rise up and smite it down.

The point of all this seems to be that the Reds have made their choice. They are going on. On the threshhold of victory in a great nationalist revolution in China, they are in no mood to be halted by complications involving foreign gunboats.

To their mind, the day of foreign gunboats in Chinese waters is about over. There is every likelihood that they intended the shots they fired to be heard around the world.

They are in that kind of mood.

Factory Workers Get $25 Cash in a Jiffy at Aetna Finance

A new $25 "in a jiffy" service is now being offered by Aetna Finance Company, 7 North Liberty, to worthy persons in Cumberland and nearby communities.

Those in need of $25 to tide them over until their next pay check simply come in, sign a note for the amount, and are given the cash at once. There is none of the usual red tape or credit checking. The Company believes this new "jiffy" service is the fastest money service ever offered in Maryland.

Employed persons, or those temporarily laid off, whether men or women, are invited to avail themselves of this new "jiffy" plan at the Aetna office, 7 North Liberty, opposite Fort Cumberland Hotel. Larger amounts up to $1000 are available on other popular plans. —Adv.

Fire Damages Seven-Room Home At Shaft

Child's Coughing Awakens Parents

FROSTBURG—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a seven room frame residence at Shaft yesterday morning.

The blaze was discovered at 3:30 a. m. by Mr. and Mrs. William Reed, owners of the property, when they were awakened by the coughing of their two-year-old son, William, Jr., whose bed room was filled with smoke from flames on the first floor.

Reed and his wife and baby escaped from the burning building. The Shaft Fire Department confined the blaze to the rear part of the structure, consisting of an outside kitchen, sun parlor and pantry, which were completely destroyed.

Most of the furnishings on the first floor were badly damaged by water, but a brick wall prevented the blaze from eating its way to the living room.

The furniture on the second floor was damaged by water and smoke.

The property, the former home of the late Ernest Layman, was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Reed in May, 1948. Reed, an employe of the Tri-State Construction Company on the Vale Summit strip mining project, is a veteran of World War II. His wife is the former Miss Naomi Willetts.

Reed praised the Shaft Fire Department for their quick response.

The Frostburg Fire Department also responded to the alarm but the blaze was under control when they arrived. Reed stated that both the property and the house were insured.

The house is heated by a coal fired piped hot air system and the furnace, located in the cellar on the opposite side of the burned section, contained a small amount of fire which had been banked.

Clarence Muir, acting chief of the Shaft Fire Department, stated that the foresight of the people of Shaft and Carlos in supplying the communities with a water supply saved the property and probably the lives of the occupants.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME—Shown above is the seven-room frame home of Mr. and Mrs. William Reed at Shaft, which was partially destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. Cause of the blaze has not been determined. Mr. and Mrs. Reed were awakened by the coughing of their two-year-old son, William, Jr., when smoke filled his room. The family escaped from the burning building. The Shaft Volunteer Fire Department confined the blaze to the rear of the home.

The first part of the program will include selection by the Arion band; opening chorus, minstrel company; solo, "Life Gets Tedious," Earl Blough; "Darkness on the Delta," Carl Fresh and chorus; "Galway Bay," Glyn Geis; "Eve Cost Adam Just One Bone," Tom Rank; "When You Were Sweet Sixteen," Sam Thomas and chorus; "My Blushing Rosie,' Charles Schutz and chorus, and closing chorus, the entire minstrel company.

The second part will include song and dance numbers and other specialty numbers. Harry Crowe will direct the show and Mrs. Marion Charles will play the piano accompaniments.

End men will be Earl Blough, Tom Rank, James Close, Don Connor, Carl Fresh and Charles Schutz. The chorus will consist of Rev. Harold R. Stoudt, U. B. F. Edwards, Glyn Geis, Sam Thomas, Lawrence Wibrecht, George Lemmert, Carl Layman, William Filer, Irvin Lancaster, John Shupe and Walter Kerr.

The P-T A committee in charge consists of Mrs. Elsie Blank, Mrs. Lillian Hamilton and Mrs. Marie Crowe.

Following the entertainment, refreshments will be served.

Lewyn C. Davis Addresses Tri-Towns Health Workers

WESTERNPORT—"The Allegany Project of the Health Department" was discussed by Lewyn C. Davis, Cumberland, supervisor of Allegany County high schools, at the second annual dinner meeting of the Lay Committee and Workers of the Westernport Public Health District, at Burns Restaurant, Wednesday night, which was attended by 45 guests. The district includes Westernport, Luke, Barton and McCoole areas.

Davis, who was acting principal of Bruce High School here during World War II, in discussing his theme stated that an ill child is not likely to be a good student, and is the responsibility of the parents, school and the community.

That the children who attend school where the hot lunch program functions are healthier than those who do not have that opportunity has been proved by physical examinations, he said.

Every child needs praise, affection and encouragement, he stated.

Dr. Winter R. Frantz, Allegany County health officer, spoke briefly.

Mrs. Frank Zeitlan, chairman of the Westernport Health Center committee, reviewed the work of the group for the past year.

Dr. Robert W. Bess, Piedmont, who made eye examinations of children for the committee, was publicly thanked.

Asphalt Tank To Be Placed Outside Limits

Keyser Council Changes Site

KEYSED, W. Va.—City officials decided at a special meeting yesterday afternoon to place a 10,000-gallon asphalt tank at the city-owned rock quarry and crushing plant outside the corporate limits on Armstrong Street extended.

The action followed receipt of a petition signed by South Keyser residents protesting the proposed location of the tank at the city filtration plant.

The latter location has been approved at a regular council meeting Tuesday over objection of Mayor John C. Freeland.

G. A. Carskadon, 564 South Main Street, presented the petition opposing location of the tank at the filtration plant. He said South Keyser residents believed it would be undesirable because of fire hazard, asphalt odor and truck tarffic hauling asphalt in and out of the neighborhood.

Carskadon added that paving bricks block one alley in that section, but Commissioner Harold Snyder said the bricks were placed there this week for use in sewer work.

Snyder and Commissioner William Stafford favored placing the asphalt tank at the filtration plant because the insurance rate would not be increased and because it is planned to erect a building in that section for storage of city-owned equipment.

Snyder asked for action on another petition requesting construction of protecting dykes or other precautionary measures relative to high voltage tanks with a capacity of about 30,000 gallons, located north of the Baltimore and Ohio tracks.

The tanks are owned by the Atlantic Service Company, the Cities Service Company and the Marshall Oil Company. The petition was submitted some time ago by the Vigilant Reel and Hose Company.

Mayor Freeland said he would agree to another special meeting on the matter after the council had acted on the petition regarding the asphalt tank.

Snyder suggested that a city ordinance be prepared to prohibit erection or gas, fuel or oil storage tanks above the ground within the corporate limits without properly constructed dykes or other precautionary steps.

Petition Asks Inspection Of Mineral Jail

"Freedom" Allowed Prisoners Cited

KEYSER, W. Va., — A petition asking inspection of the Mineral County Jail has been filed with Judge E. A. See of Mineral County Circuit Court by Prosecuting Attorney Don C. Hott.

Hott stated that he had received numerous complaints from Keyser residents that prisoners had been allowed to go in and out of jail during the day.

He also requested that Judge See name a three-man committee to investigate the alleged practice and also that of habitual drunkards who frequently arrange their arrest and confinement."

The petition filed by Attorney Hott follows:

"First: That numerous complaints have been received from the citizens of Keyser, concerning the freedom allowed prisoners in the Mineral County jail.

"Second: That in the matter of the habitual drunkards in Keyser and Piedmont, it is observed that these chronic alcoholics frequently deliberately arrange their arrest and confinement in jail, apparently preferring life in jail to the necessity of making their own living outside, with the result that several of the chronic alcoholics have become almost boarders at the expense of Mineral County.

"Third: That under the provisions of Section 3, Article 8, Chapter 7, of the Code of West Virginia, the Circuit Court is directed to appoint three persons to inspect the conditions and operation of the Mineral County Jail, and make suggestions as to changes or improvements they believe are needed.

"It is respectfully suggested that this committee should consist of the County Health Doctor, a practicing attorney, and a business man from Keyser."

Margaret Mann Becomes Bride

THOMAS, W. Va., — The First Presbyterian Church of Thomas was the scene of the wedding of Miss Margaret Mann, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Andrew B. Mann, to Robert William Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Simpson, Wellsburg, April 12.

Rev. Mann, father of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with rhododendron, baskets of lilies, baby's-breath, gladioli and ferns and lighted with cathedral candles in branched candelabra.

Miss Carol Ann Cooper played "Kammennoi Ostrow" by Rubenstein and accompanied Mrs. Wayne M. Cornwall, Fairmont, sister of the bride who sang "Because" and Miss Jo Simpson Wellsburg, sister of the bridegroom, who sang "At Dawning". Miss Cooper also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Brown Mann, Covington, Va. She wore an ankle length dress of stone blue silk crepe with pink and navy accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Her jewelry was a blue sapphire necklace given to her by her father-in-law and a bracelet from the bridegroom. She carried a white leather Bible.

Mrs. Kenneth Peters, Tunnelton, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and wore a pink and black street length jersey dress with pink accessories and a corsage of sweet peas.

Vernon Simpson, Wellsburg, served his brother as best man. Ushers were John Kenneth Mann, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Peters, brother-in-law of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families and several close friends. The bride's table featured vases of spring flowers and was centered with a wedding cake. Presiding at the table were Mrs. R. H. Keyes of Keyser, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Homer Peters, Parsons.

Mrs. Simpson is a graduate of Thomas High School and will receive her degree from Davis and Elkins College in August. She is a member of the Student Christian Association and of the Women's Athletic Association of the college.

Mr. Simpson is a student at Davis and Elkins college where he is preparing for the Presbyterian ministry. He is a member of Alpha Chi Omega and the Student Christian Association.

The couple left for a honeymoon in the South, after which they will reside in Elkins.

Col. Ballard To Address Moose

MOOREFIELD, W. Va.—Col. W. H. Ballard will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the Moose Lodge at the initiation of a special class honoring Governor Okey L. Patteson, according to the announcement of L. M. Porks, Spencer, Membership Director for the State of West Virginia, Loyal Order of Moose.

The special class of candidates will be initiated by the Piedmont degree team and ceremonies will start at seven p. m. The class will be initiated in the new Moose Home quarters which have been under construction for the past several weeks. A floor show will be given and refreshments will be served to members, candidates and visitors.

The new building will have new lodge room quarters, a new ladies lounge and a separate club room. Construction should be completed by June 1. Eddie Arrington is the foreman in charge of the construction. The new building will cost approximately $10,000.

St. James Church Elects Vestrymen

WESTERNPORT—John Gannon, John Ward, Dan Staley and Evan DeWitt were elected vestrymen of St. James Episcopal Church at the annual meeting of the parish in the parish house recently. The other vestrymen are Harley Dixon, Tracy Whitworth, George Boyd and Louis W. Hicks.

The new vestrymen replace Horace P. Whitworth, Sr., Howard Peyton, Arthur Arnold and Dr. Donald P. Whitworth.

The meeting was called to conform with the state laws governing religious groups with four vestrymen being voted out and four voted in.

Rev. G. Stanley Schwind, rector, delivered his annual message and reports were given by the parish committees.

Phillip Kelly, Miss Grady Are Married

PIEDMONT, W. Va.—Miss Margaret Grady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Grady, 114 East Hampshire Street, and Phillip Kelly, son of William Kelly and the late Mrs. May Bell Kelly, 55 West Harrison Street, were married Monday afternoon at the rectory of St. Peter's Catholic Church, Westernport. The single ring ceremony was performed by Msgr. A. Scarpati, pastor.

Miss Willa Christine Davis, Piedmont, was Miss Grady's bridesmaid and Harry Kelly was his brother's best man.

The bride was attired in a powder blue dress, blue veiled hat, blue mitts and black slippers. She wore a corsage of white rosebuds and baby's-breath.

Miss Davis wore an ashes of roses dress, pink hat with long veil and pink mitts to match and black slippers. She wore a corsage of talisman roses.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom. Mrs. DeSales Bissett presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. John Kelly, Rochester, N Y served the wedding cake.

The home was decorated with spring flowers. A large tiered wedding cake with candelabra on each side adorned the table.

Among those from out of town attending were Miss Betty Mellon and Miss Mary Margaret Pendergast, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. William Pendergast, Hutton, Md.; James McFarland, Hancock, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly and daughter, Rochester, N. Y., and Miss Sarah Ellen Sweeney, Waston, W. Va.

Mrs. Kelly is a graduate of Piedmont High School, class of 1943, and is employed at the Davis Sisters Bakery.

Mr. Kelly, who graduated from Piedmont High School in 1942, is employed as a mechanic at the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad shops at Keyser. During World War II, he served with the Army in the European Theatre.

They are spending their wedding trip in Washington and New York City. Mrs. Kelly wore for her going away outfit a dark green suit, light gray coat and corsage of white rosebuds and baby's-breath. When they return from their trip they will reside at 54 West Harrison Street.

Farm Women Protest Movie Drinking Scenes

OLD FIELDS, W. Va.—Members of the Old Fields Farm Women Club agreed at their April meeting to write Eric Johnston, movie czar, protest continuous and unnecessary drinking scenes in movies.

Th group met at the home of Mrs. Brooke Sherman. Mrs. Loring Sherman was assistant hostess.

They donated $6.50 to Cancer Control and $5 to a fund for the education of a foreign student.

They decided to present a one-act play for their own entertainment and to join the Durgon Farm women in preparing a window decoration for the observance of Home Demonstration week early in May.

A gift was sent Mrs. Lively in the hospital and a surprise housewarming given their hostess, Mrs. Sherman.

Moorefield Clubs Meet

MOOREFIELD, W. Va., — Members of the Home Workers Farm Women's Club will plant 50 Chinese chestnut trees and 50 black walnut trees as a part of their spring activities. The club met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Markwood. Club members have purchased a textile painting set for the use of the members.

Mrs. Henry Hawse was the leader for the lesson "Homes For Happy Memories" at the meeting of the Lost River Farm Women's Club at the home of Mrs. A. D. Walker last week. Mrs. Alberta Calhoun also spoke the lesson subject, and read a poem. The Lost River club made a donation to the current Cancer Control drive and also a donation to the 4-H Student Fund. As a part of the program Mrs. Ward Wood also gave a talk on homes.

Couple Marry In Cumberland

MOOREFIELD, W. Va. — Miss Viola Kuykendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Kuykendall, South Fork, and James Parsons, son of Mrs. Bessie Parsons and the late Parron Parsons, were married in Cumberland April 8 by Rev. Carl H. Clapp, pastor of St. Marks Evangelical and Reformed Church. They were accompanied by Merle Ours.

The bride wore navy blue with white accessories.

The couple spent the weekend at Hanging Rock and last week with Mr. and Mrs. Kuykendall on South Fork.

Mrs. Parsons is employed by Mrs. Brown Halterman and Mrs. Parsons does electrical work.

Pay this bill for me, will you?

Suppose a stranger asked you to pay his electric light bill every month . . .

Farfetched idea? Not so—because you do help pay a lot of other people's electric bills every month!

Every time you buy cigarettes, matches, gasoline, a lipstick or a watch, or hundreds of other things, part of what you pay is a federal tax. And that same federal tax money helps pay those strangers' electric bills.

Here's why: the federal government is in the electric business in some parts of the country. It sells electric service to some people and to certain industries—below the real cost.

Who makes up the difference? You do—the government uses some of your taxes for that purpose.

The more of this below-cost electricity the government sells, the more taxes the government must collect to make up the difference between selling price and cost.

We are against government-in-the-electric-business in America. Because it threatens all self-supporting electric companies. And because it is Socialization of one business, a long first step toward Socialization of all business.

Most Americans don't want that. : : : Do you?

AMAZING NEW DISCOVERY FOR RHEUMATISM, ARTHRITIS

NO FASTER ARTHRITIC PAIN RELIEF KNOWN... SAFE

HOSPITAL TESTED Stops Swelling.. Uncorks Joints.. Contains Sensational New Research Discovery

NEW, SAFE, SCIENTIFIC TABLET

Not a Narcotic... Not Habit Forming...

AT LAST THE STORY CAN BE TOLD! Medical science developed the amazing wonder-working drugs Sulfa and Penicillin... then turned attention to relieving the agonizing pains caused by rheumatism and arthritis. The result of extensive research is a wonder-working ingredient which is now combined with other pharmaceuticals into a remarkable preparation called IMDRIN. Longtime sufferers from rheumatism, arthritis, neuritis, and gout may find IMDRIN gives glorious relief so sensationally fast it's really amazing! There's nothing faster available to the public today. Contains no dope or harmful drugs. Only after three long years of clinical work and hospital testing was this fast, safe pain-killer developed, but today it is REALITY. If you suffer rheumatic pain ask for IMDRIN at RAND'S

DEVELOPED AFTER THREE YEARS OF EXTENSIVE TESTS IN HOSPITAL CLINICS

IMDRIN has been a closely guarded experimental secret before release for public use. Yes, medical men, after three years of extensive hospital tests, have proved conclusively that IMDRIN works internally toward amazing reduction of pain, heat, redness, and swelling in the joints. Patients undergoing IMDRIN therapy in these hospital clinics often were able to resume comfortable living completely, after other remedies had failed. Every victim of rheumatism, arthritis, neuritis, sciatica, gout, neuralgia; etc., should investigate this new development of modern medicine. Ask for IMDRIN at RAND'S Truly IMDRIN is today's big proprietary success.

Relieves Pain and Suffering After 20 Years of Torture!

"I call IMDRIN a miracle and you can understand why when I tell you that the pain which had tortured and crippled me, and for which there seemed no relief, was gone after I had taken IMDRIN. Now, for the first time in years, I can move about without pain and enjoy life once again. Surely the thousands of unfortunates like me who are seeking relief from the pains of arthritis should be happy to learn about the blessed, fast-acting ingredient which IMDRIN contains. It surely goes to work fast and gets results."
Gratefully yours,
A. C.
Chicago, Illinois

"I had arthritis and rheumatism so bad I could hardly get around. In fact, I went to several doctors who told me that my case was hopeless and that they could do nothing for me. Well, I had about given up hope when I saw your ad in the paper and bought a bottle of IMDRIN. I really think it's a wonder. I feel better with every dose I take. It seems like a dream to be free of so much pain."
MRS. A. R. WEBB
341 N. Bryan Street, Amarillo, Texas

"I am not getting paid for these words, but I want everyone to know what I know about IMDRIN. I had rheumatism and arthritis in my left shoulder and arm so bad I could hardly use it. Everytime I moved my arm it hurt just like sticking a knife into it. I was like a one-armed person. I tried all kinds of remedies that did no good. Then I tried IMDRIN. Now since I have IMDRIN, I suffer no more pain! No one can realize the wonderful relief it gives a person that suffered like I did. IMDRIN is worth hundreds of dollars to me."
A. C. STOCKTON
341 N. Wheaton Avenue, Wheaton, Illinois

"Even though my daughter is a registered nurse she could not find anything to help her agonizing arthritic pains. She tried everything but nothing did her any good. Then she bought IMDRIN and she has had miraculous results. I am going to tell all my friends about the wonderful relief from IMDRIN. It really is an amazing remedy."
MRS. C. C.
Kunkletown, Pennsylvania

WHERE RHEUMATISM STRIKES ...AND HOW TO DETECT IT!

Rheumatic and arthritic pain and inflammation can strike the joints in any of the indicated affected areas. (See arrows in chart above.) But these diseases have many forms and each form has varying symptoms. Rheumatoid arthritis is an infection of the joints which fill with fluid; the skin around them may be red, the joints themselves swollen and painful. Still another form is specific infectious arthritis.

All these various forms of arthritis and rheumatism are accompanied by pain; very often swelling and loss of function of the joints. Hospital and clinical test patients undergoing IMDRIN therapy, some of whom had suffered hopelessly for as long as twenty years, were able to resume more happy, active living once the pain subsided and their confidence grew. In cases where the joints were swollen, IMDRIN, working internally, reduced swelling and eased pain rapidly. These patients, many of whom had given up hope, were able to once again resume comfortable living. It is true that response to IMDRIN varied occasionally and your own experience may or may not coincide with that of patients tested. But IMDRIN today is your greatest hope. IMDRIN, with the new wonder-working ingredient, may give you the same blessed successful results. Get IMDRIN today!

Yankees Annex Third Straight, Beat Nats, 2-1

Hank Bauer's Double Wins Game In Ninth

NEW YORK, April 21 (AP)—The New York Yankees made it three straight over the Washington Senators today, beating the Nats, 2-1, on Hank Bauer's ninth inning double.

Johnny Lindell singled to start the ninth. He moved to second when Sherry Robertson dropped Tommy Henrich's short liner in right. Bauer then socked a pitch to right center to break it up.

Gromek Beats Browns

ST. LOUIS, April 21 (AP)—Steve Gromek pitched a strange two-hitter today as the Cleveland Indians downed the St. Louis Browns 8-2. The only hits off him were home runs by Jack Graham and Dick Kokos in the fifth.

The Tribe offensive included a three-run homer by Larry Doby and another circuit blow by Joe Gordon.

Doby's booming drive in the fifth was to the center field flag pole. Paul Lehner got his glove on it but collided with the wall and had to retire from the game with a slight cut over his left eye. Box:

PHILADELPHIA, April 21 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox "walked" to a 4-0 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics today to salvage the series final after dropping two straight games.

Pitcher Phil Marchildon blew up in the ninth inning with two out as the Sox scored all of their runs. Ted Williams' single opened the frame but he was forced at second on Vern Stephens' attempted sacrifice bunt.

Marchildon then issued a pass to Bobby Doerr but appeared to be out of danger when he retired Stan Spence on an outfield fly.

But the Philadelphia righthander gave successive walks to Pinch-hitter Bill Goodman and Birdie Tebbetts, forcing in one run. Mel Parnell, Boston pitcher, promptly singled two more home.

Marchildon's fourth pass of the inning to Dom DiMaggio sent him to the showers. Alex Kellner, rookie southpaw, walked Johnny Pesky, forcing in the fourth run of the inning. Box:

White Sox Win, 5-2

DETROIT, April 21 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox scored their first win of the American League campaign today as they slowed rookie Outfielder Johnny Groth and the Detroit Tigers down with a 5-2 decision.

Groth had to settle for one single in his two official times at bat. On his other appearances, he walked and was hit by the pitcher.

The day's activities left Groth with a record of six hits in nine times at bat in the three-game series. He scored the Tigers' first run today to run his season total in that department to four.

Petersburg Tops Moorefield In Extra Inning Contest, 2-1

Rally In 8th Cheats Vance Of No-Hitter; Smith Breaks Up Game

PETERSBURG, W. Va., April 21 — Johnny Vance, Moorefield High School's pitching ace had a no-run, no-hit game in his grasp here this afternoon but it slipped away from him in an extra inning battle when Petersburg High School's Vikings scored twice in the last of the 8th to win by the score of 2-1.

Only 21 batsmen had faced Vance during the regulation seven inning game, he had struck out 15 batsmen and was leading 1- in a duel with Norris Dolly until the last of the eighth when the home club pushed over the tying and winning markers.

Dolly started the winning rally when he drew a base on balls. Naselrodt laid down a bunt beat it out for a hit and when Catcher Baldwin threw wildly past first both runners advance an extra base. With the count two and two, Gus Smith hit to deep left and when the ball bounded off Harman's glove Dolly and Nesselrodt scored.

Dolly went the route for the Vikings, scattering seven hits and fanning seven. He issued four passes.

The victory was Peterburg's second against one loss and it marked the first time in many years that Moorefield had lost to a local school nine. Box:

Bi-State Conference Season Opens Today, Three Games Carded

Fort Hill High School's Sentinels, victorious in a pair of independent games, will open defense of its Bi-State Interscholastic Baseball Conference crown when it does battle with Coach Johnny Meyer's Central High School Tigers today at 4 o'clock in Lonaconing.

Other Bi-State lid-lifters, pits Allegany against Hyndman High at Hyndman, Pa., at 4 o'clock, and Beall High of Frostburg against LaSalle at Stitcher Field at 3:30 o'clock.

Allegany has won two games from non-conference foes and Beall has annexed its lone start.

LaSalle will start the campaign with a new manager in the person of Charley Doyle, who pilots the Old Germans in the Bi-State League.

LaSalle last night announced that Mike and not Jim Cunningham will play first base for the Explorers and Bill Paupe and not Bill Coffey is a member of the pitching staff.

Stranahan, Chapman, Ward, Palmer Take Pinehurst Matches

PINEHURST, N. C., April 21 (INS)—Defending champion Harvie Ward, Frank Stranahan, Arnold Palmer and Dick Chapman advanced today to the semi-finals in Pinehurst's North-South Amateur Golf Tournament.

Stranahan beat Julius Boros of Hartford, Conn., 3 and 1. The Toledoan was only 1 up at the turn but clinched the match on the short 17th with a birdie 2. He was one under par when he finished.

Chapman, former National Amateur champ from Pinehurst, had the easiest win. He beat H. H. Haverstick of Lancaster, Pa., 4 and 3, taking the 10th, 11th, 14th and 15th after being all even at the end of nine.

Ward bogeyed the 13th and 14th holes and lost the 16th but still was able to beat W. W. Markham of East Hampton, Conn., 2 and 1.

Palmer beat a fellow Wake Forest College pal, Frank Edens, 2 up.

Fort Cumberland Club Opens Spring Tourney

The qualifying round of the spring tournament at the Fort Cumberland Golf Club will get under way today and will continue through June 1, "Buddy" Rice, club pro, announced yesterday.

Players will be divided into flights of eight for match play.

A kickers' handicap tournament is scheduled for tomorrow and Sunday at the club. Prizes will be offered.

Chuck Taylor Injured

GALLITZIN, Pa., April 21 (AP) — Welterweight boxer Chuck Taylor, 27, was injured today in a water heater explosion which wrecked his six-room frame house three miles north of here.

The fighter's wife and three children were not hurt in the early morning blast.

Giants Top Dodgers

NEW YORK, April 21 (INS) — Clint Hartung pitched a four-hitter today and Sid Gordon and Mickey Livingston smashed two-run homers to give the New York Giants, a 4 to 1 win over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Giants' first victory of the season after two losses was scored against Preacher Roe, Dodger starter, who was relieved in the eighth by Jack Banta. The Giants made seven hits.

Johnny Vander Meer Flashes Rare Form

CINCINNATI, April 21 (INS)—The Cincinnati Reds, near—universal choice to finish last in the National League, shot into first place today by defeating St. Louis 5-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Johnny Vander Meer.

The Redleg lefthander, ably assisted by a pair of two-run homers from the bats of Jimmy Bloodworth and Hank Sauer, reached new highs in control. It was one of the rare games in which he neither walked nor hit a man, nor threw a wild pitch.

Homer Sinks Bucs

CHICAGO, April 21 (INS)—Bob Scheffing slapped a two-run homer off Bob Muncrief in the eighth inning today to turn probable defeat into a 4 to 3 victory for the Chicago Cubs over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Cubs' second straight conquest of the Bucs was observed by a Ladies' Day crowd of 15,869, who saw Emil Kush pitch the last two innings for Chicago and receive credit for the victory. Walt Dubiel, Cub starter, gave up all three Pirate runs, but two of these were unearned. Box:

K. Of C. Grabs Lead In Series For Title Of Shuffleboard Loop

FROSTBURG, April 21—Cumberland's Knights of Columbus, defending champions, drew first blood in the playoff series for the championship of the National Shuffleboard League of Allegany County by winning by the margin of five points over the Century Athletic Club in a three-game match tonight.

The K. of C. scored 79 points to Century's 74.

The championship is being decided on total points in six games. Century won first half honors in the league and the K. of C. captured the second half race.

Vet Bans 68 Horses — Elks Elect Roberts — Ridgeley Is Bidder — Extra Days Are Gift

By C. V. BURNS

Arabian Wind	Little Action
Arthur's Sword	Madigama
Azimuth	Matador John
Bee Larkmead	Miss Wolverine
Blenel	Nobby Boy
Blushing Queen	Off Shore
Bo Hi	Ollie Simmons
Bombs Away	Parade Grounds
Bonzar	Parnard
Canto Gallo	Parquet
Cash O Boy	Pay Station
Casogin	Persian Kitten
Colonel Govans	Polly Twigg
Dibber	Red Lake
Ethel Morse	Rex Avis
Fantom Venture	Rickpole
Flary	Rolling Bar
Freddie's Game	Roman Holiday
Free Speech	San Mar
General Knight	Saucy King
Glamour Dust	Scotland Light
Golden Message	Shove Off
Grandpa Jim	Shrewla
Greenock's Cain	Silver Label
Happy Me	Sweep Torch
Helenchen	Symbol
High Sir	Tambo
I Dream	Tetra Rock
Instantaneous	Transtan
Irish Charger	Turnstile
J. Hal	Valiant Dot
Kalamazoo	War Savage
Lake Bid	Zola
Leo's Pal	Zorro

This list should be of valuable information to veterinarians at other tracks. Other racing associations should furnish all tracks with a list of horses that are turned down because they are unfit.

George H. Smith, Jr., of Pittsburgh, the former Middle Atlantic Baseball League umpire, who once played shortstop for Pittsburgh in the old Federal League days, paid the NEWS a visit the other night and as usual put across a number of good after-dinner stories.

Smitty is always able to revive some happening of the Mid-Atlantic days when Cumberland was in the league and his latest concerns an arbiter named Shaner who displeased the Scottdale fans in the days when the New York Yankees operated a "farm" in the Pennsylvania mill town.

The fans, according to Smith, became so unfuriated with Shaner's officiating that they went out on the field, seized him and heaved him over the park fence.

Then the patrons began hunting through the stands to find a replacement for Shaner. While they were doing so they noticed somebody come in the side gate yelling "Play Ball."

The fans hardly could believe their own eyes because the individual shouting "Play Ball" was none other than the Mr. Shaner who had just been given the heave-ho.

"That was a strange thing," Smitty reminisced. "Do you know that Scottdale fans thereafter looked upon Shaner as being one of the most competent umpires in the league and he never experienced any more trouble there."

• — • — •

Smitty recalls the day that President Elmer Daily ordered him to report to Fairmont (W. Va.) to replace an umpire who was having all kinds of trouble with players and fans.

It seems that one day the fire department escorted the umpire out of the park to keep the fans from lynching him. After the State Police were called to the arbiter's rescue on the second day Daily decided it was best to make a change before the army, navy and marines were called to preserve order.

A fan wants to know what became of Rogers Hornsby, National League batting king of yesteryear.

The Rajah, holder of the modern National League batting record of .424, returns this season to Wrigley Field, Chicago, where he once played second base for the Cubs and served as player-manager but he's now playing a different role.

The Hall of Fame great is handling the television "mike" at Station WENR-TV which is telecasting the Cubs' games this season.

Ross Roberts, well known pitcher of bygone days, who twirled in the old Blue Ridge League, for the Cumberland Colts of the 1920s and for the Johnstown Johnnies, has been elected exalted ruler of Altoona Lodge No. 102, B. P. O. Elks.

Mrs. Roberts is a daughter of the late Harry Moliter who was baseball leader of Johnstown teams back in the early 1920s before the Middle Atlantic League was organized.

In event the Ceredo-Kenova Gun Club of Ceredo, W. Va., is unable to stage the West Virginia State Championship Trapshooting Tournament July 8, 9 and 10, the Ridgeley Rod and Gun Club will bid for the event.

Ridgeley now has one of the outstanding trapshooting set-ups in the Mountain State and there has been much activity there in recent years.

The Ridgeley Club was host to state gunners last year when 70 scatter gun experts shot it out in the three-day affair.

This item in "The Maryland Horse," official publication of the Maryland Horse Breeders' Association, should clear up conflicting reports whether Cumberland is eligible for two extra days of racing if the local association desires to make use of same:

"The Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association had a bill put in the hopper to allow the Racing Commission" in its discretion" to grant two extra days to each of the five minor tracks. Under Phil Dorsey's skilled handling this bill hit no snags, except that Cumberland was adamant for exemption, and it took a conference committee of house and senate to get them to accept the gift. The bill passed without trouble, and thus "halfers" got their days raised from 50 to 60."

Maryland's half milers, incidentally, received a $5,000 tax reduction from $25,000 to $20,000 per track annually, at the recent session of the legislature. The tracks are expected to use these funds to improve their properties. It was reported that the "bite" put on the smaller tracks in 1947 went too deep.

Track Season To Open Today Six Schools To Vie At Stadium

Sentinels Are Hosts To Five West Virginia Teams In 11 Events

Track and field representatives of six schools of the tri-state district will gather at Fort Hill stadium today for the first meet of the season at 3:30 o'clock.

Coach William P. Hahn and his Fort Hill High School thinclads will play hosts to athletes of five West Virginia schools, namely Berkeley Springs ("Moose" Hodges); Keyser (John Shelton); Piedmont William "Huck" Miers); Fort Ashy (Tom Small) and Ridgeley (Jesse Riggleman).

The track events on today's card are the 100 and 220 yard dashes, 440 and 880 yard and mile runs, the 800 yards relay and mile relay. Field events listed are high and broad jumps, shot put and discus.

Coach Hahn reported last night that the track is in good condition but the football field is not in the best of shape at the present time due to resurfacing operations.

Officials for the meet will be selected from representatives of the competing schools.

TIGERS HAVE ANOTHER ROOKIE BEAUTY IN GROTH

REPORTED "READY" at the start of the 1948 season but sent to the minors for another year of competition, Johnny Groth, rookie outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, began his 1949 season's play in spectacular style. Groth, who is considered the outstanding rookie of the year, hit two home runs in succession in the opener. He had a .340 batting mark with Buffalo last year and led the league in most hits, doubles, triples, total bases and runs batted in. (International)

Litter Of Eleven Foxes Plowed Up By Farmer

HAGERSTOWN, Md., April 21 (AP)—George Keener, plowing a field for spring corn planting, turned up a litter of 11 foxes, Game Warden David Gross reported.

Gross said the litter was the largest ever brought to his attention. He said that to his knowledge, the previous record was eight.

Rampart Takes Conowingo Purse

Scores Over Pilaster And Returns $19.40

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., April 21 (AP)—Mrs. Helen K. Haggerty's mare, Rampart, won the Conowingo Purse by length and a half today over Pilaster, the favorite, before 9,154 fans.

Rampart, a former big stakes winner, took down $2,275 for today's victory. She was clocked in 1:45.

Rampart was no worse than second throughout the race and moved into the lead in the stretch.

Derby Eligibles Beaten

JAMAICA RACE TRACK, April 21 (AP)—Four Kentucky Derby eligibles, none of whom will see Churchill Downs on May 7, were trounced in The Thistle, an allowance sprint of six furlongs that held the feature spot of today's racing card that attracted a crowd of 25,691 fans.

Dry Fly, owned by the Cain Hoy Stables scored by three quarters of a length over Mirabeau and Low and High. Dry Fly, not nominated for any of the big races that make up the triple crown, was clocked in 112 2-5 on a fast track with Jockey Basil James in the irons.

Emulate, the odds-on favorite, was away out of the money. The winner was a $15.50 mutuel.

KEEPING UP WITH HOLLYWOOD

By LOUELLA PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD, April 21—(INS)—Gregory Ratoff was just here for a few days—but long enough to make arrangements with Peggy Cummins to go to Rome and make another picture for him after she finishes with the King Brothers. He also signed Constance Bennett for the lead in his next picture.

Louella Parsons

I don't wonder Greg wants Peggy Cummins. I had dinner with Virginia Zanuck on her birthday—just about eight of us—and Greg showed us his picture, "The Case Of Lady Brooke." Peggy has never looked so well, nor given such a performance. It is Richard Greene's best too, and Myrna Loy is, as usual, good. I prophesy that Greg has a box-office hit. After the story actually gets going it is exciting. The shots of Capri are beautiful.

● — ● — ●

Anne Baxter, who was the only girl in "Yellow Sky," will again be the only girl in "Halls Of Montezuma" surrounded by a cast of good looking males in this 20th picture. Well, few gals would squawk about such a fate.

My neighbor down the street, Sy Bartlett, is the co-author of this original with Harry Kleiner. It is landing on Iwo Jima and other islands in the South Pacific during the war.

I hear Bill Lundigan is in the setup, but Robert Bassler, the producer, isn't saying which male gets the top spot—but you can take it from me, it's someone off the lot.

A transatlantic call went to Jean Wallace, who is in Paris, from Producer Robert Sparks asking her to come home for the femme lead with George Raft and Pat O'Brien in "The Bail Bond Story." Jean has just arrived in Paris to do some added scenes for "The Man On the Eifeel Tower," and she says she is sick. If she feels better, and is able to get here, she will do it.

I am sorry that Jean and Franchot Tone didn't make up, because Jean told me before she left that she wanted a reconciliation more than anything else.

If she comes back to do "The Bail Bond Story" she will have Ted Tetzloff directing her. Well, his direction of "The Window" was excellent.

Russ Arms, the actor, who was formerly under contract to Warners, is marrying singer Jean Palmer in June. She has been in the road company of "Make Mine Manhattan."

Virginia Zanuck has gorgeous pearl earrings and matching ring, the gift of Darryl Zanuck on her birthday.

Mrs. Jerry Lewis, wife of the comedian, goes into the hospital over the weekend for an operation.

Wonderful of Jeanette MacDonald to sing at the snow white ball at the Tennis Club in Palm Springs Saturday, and then to turn over her check to the United Jewish Welfare Fund.

Bette Davis To Be Starred In 'Skylark' On CBS

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK, April 21—Jack Carson and his dad will be together in Jack's CBS broadcast for the third time Friday night. That's CBS at 8.

It started April 1 when Jack made a Milwaukee homecoming broadcast and had his father, E. L. Carson, a retired insurance man, as guest. It worked out so well, the guest idea has been continued, and may go on some more.

Bette Davis to do what radio delights in calling "starring" when she takes the lead in the Friday Playhouse of CBS at 9. This hour will deal with "Skylark," a story of married life and business.

The last of the Herbert Hoover guest discussions in the CBS You and the Hoover Commission at 6:15 will have as its specific theme "General Inefficiency.". . . Jimmy Stewart is to be the guest of the Sports show on NBC at 10:30.

Prize fighting will be the middleweight division, ABC says, when its microphones go ringside for the weekly visit at 10. The principals are listed as Walter Cartier and Vinnie Cidone. Because the Garden is having its annual visit from the circus, these events are being held in another down town arena.

NETWORK PROGRAMS

Time is eastern standard. For central standard subtract one hour, for mountain standard subtract two hours. Some local stations change hour of relay to fit local schedules. Last minute program changes cannot be included.

RADIO IN REVIEW

By JOHN CROSBY

Master Criminals Aren't What They Were

John Crosby

The cleverest of all jewel thieves was abroad the other night on the American Broadcasting System. Not long, though. David Harding, Counterspy, dragged him off to the hoosegow after a brief but spectacular romp. The only reason I bring it up now is that master thieves are pretty rare these days.

Realism has become so firmly imbedded in mystery — the influence of Dashiell Hammett, probably — that you practically never run across anyRaffles, any Moriartys, any more. The criminal who lives in opulence collecting rare books as a hobby, the suave fellow who everyone knows is guilty but can't prove it, appears to have gone into permanent retirement, conceivably reading his books. He's been replaced by the little clerk in Brooklyn, pulling his one big and fatal job, or by real tough mugs, refugees from gangster movies.

This particular jewel thief opened big, as they say in show business, but he was an awful disappointment. His name was Raymond Howard Ferris and right away I expected a good deal from him. Man with three names like that, the Herbert Bayard Swope type, was obviously no ordinary thief. Also, he lived in a big penthouse with an inter-office communication system easily as elaborate as Metro - Goldwyn - Mayer's and he was accustomed to summoning his hired hands over a loudspeaker system: "Mr. Peters wanted in Mr. Ferris' office immediately. Mr. Peters wanted in Mr. Ferris' office immediately."

Not just anyone could get in to see him, either. You had to be a fairly prominent citizen to get past the outer gates, and even then you had best take your hat off. Another remarkable thing about this Raymond Howard Ferris. When the Counterspies started breathing down the back of his neck, he called up David Harding, the chief counterspy—a man as easy to get on the phone as J. Edgar Hoover—invited him to lunch, and requested the counterspies lay off. He said he found it annoying to be tailed all the time by these uncouth characters.

But from there on he went downhill fast. His assistants bore names like Snake and Dutch, and clearly were unfit for their high stations. Raymond Howard Ferris forgot himself to the extent of telling an assistant to push somebody's face "in soft cement and let it get hard," an indelicacy Raffles would never have committed.

His criminal operations were marked by such stupidity that it seemed hard to believe Raymond Howard Ferris could stick up a gas station successfully. If I couldn't plan jewel robberies better than that, I'd be ashamed to show my face among respectable crooks. Ultimately, he was tripped up by a babe who talked like a Sarah Lawrence graduate, a characteristic that is automatically suspicious in itself. It was her face that should have been pushed into wet cement, but Raymond Howard Ferris didn't find that out until too late.

"David Harding, Counterspy"—the whole program, not just this one example—is pretty hard to swallow except in a spirit of pure hilarity. Its chief fascination for me, a minor one, is its sound effects. The sound-effects man on this one must be dripping wet when it's all over. Sometimes minutes go by without anything but sound effects. In the above case, for example, there was a sequence which started with a musical bridge, faded into the sound of running footsteps, revolver shots, the sound of shattered glass, then slow clomp-clomp footsteps (the footsteps of a cop are much different from those of the criminals on the radio. I can detect the presence of the law the moment it walks into a room), then the brrrr of a telephone being dialed and the resultant b-ring, b-ring, b ring. All that without dialogue.

They're awfully good, too, on the sound of cars shifting into high. Sounds like a Cadillac. Obviously a more expensive machine than they use on "Mr. District Attorney." The program is also alive with the chatter of teletype machines, the Counterspies apparently not communicating with each other in any other way.

The only sound about which I had any reservations was that of crickets chirping.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends, relatives and neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy and for their beautiful floral offerings sent during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved Father, Mr. William E. Phillips. We also wish to thank those who loaned cars for the funeral.

We especially wish to thank the Rev. J. F. Zimmerman and Rev. Raymond Crowe.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear Father, George William Nield, who departed this life one year ago, April 22, 1948.

It was on a Thursday morning,
I'll never forget that sad day,
God called and took our Father
To His Heaven Home to stay.
The pearly gates were opened,
A gentle voice said "Come"
And with farewell unspoken,
He swiftly entered Home.
Gone from this earth, yes, gone forever,
Tear dimmed eyes shall look in vain,
I will see his face, no never,
Never more on earth again.
In a grave yard silently sleeping,
Where the flower gently grows
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
In a cold and silent grave.

CHILDREN

GRIN AND BEAR IT — By Lichty

"I don't wonder that our statesmen sometimes make mistakes . . . why, only yesterday I got on a bus going in the wrong direction."

Deaths

Earl E. Dyche, Russell T. Dyche, James F. Dyche, Donald B. Dyche and Ralph L. Dyche, all of this city; four sisters, Mrs. Pearl Whorrell, Chestertown; Mrs. Autie Shambaugh, Hagerstown; Mrs. Edgar Shuck, Frostburg, and Mrs. Bernard Kuhlman, this city, and a sister, Mrs. Nancy Hare, Wiley Ford, W. Va.

The body is at the Scarpelli Funeral Home.

MRS. IRENE STEINLA

Mrs. Irene G. Steinla, 54, Hospital Road, Forstburg, died early yesterday morning at Memorial Hospital, where she had been a patient for one week.

She is survived by two sons, Jacob Steinla, Frostburg, and Paul Steinla, this city; two daughters, Mrs. Catherine Judy and Mrs. Evelyn Light, both of this city; three brothers, Vance Goldsworthy and Paul Goldsworthy, both of this city, and James Goldsworthy, Keyser, W. Va.; three sisters, Mrs. Beverly Hayes, Des Moines, Ia.; Mrs. Elmer Nitner and Mrs. Frank Mortimer, both of Warren, O., and six grandchildren.

A funeral service will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Wolford Funeral Home by Rev. Raymond E. Burns, pastor of Albertson Memorial Church of Spiritualism, Stanford, Conn. Burial will be in Allegany Cemetery, Frostburg. The body will be taken to the funeral home today.

DAVIS REBURIAL

The body of Pfc. Ralph C. "Pete" Davis, son of Mrs. Mattie Davis, Wiley Ford, W. Va., will arrive for reburial at 11:53 a. m. today and will be taken to the Stein Funeral Home.

Pfc. Davis died August 2, 1945, in France as a result of injuries sustained in a motor accident there. He was 25 years old. He joined the Army in September 1942 and served with the Eighth Signal Company and the 89th Signal Company. He participated in practically every major engagement in the European Theatre which took place during the 20 months he was overseas.

A reburial service will be conducted at 3:30 p. m. Sunday in Davis Memorial Church, Oldtown Road. Military rites will be accorded at the graveside in the church cemetery.

GEORGE E. WILLIAMS

FROSTBURG — George Ernest Williams, 45, of 113 Walnut Street, Grahamtown, died yesterday morning at Miners Hospital where he had been a patient since Sunday.

A well-known local musician, he had been suffering with a heart condition for sometime and had been seriously ill several weeks.

A son of Mrs. Rose Williams, Grahamtown, and the late James Ernest Williams, he was employed for many years at the Kelly-Springfield tire plant in Cumberland. He was a saxaphone player and for a number of years was manager of the Aristocrats, local orchestra. He was a member of the Christian Science Church, Cumberland.

Besides his mother, he is survived by his widow, the former Miss Elsie Miller; three brothers, Reynolds Williams, LaVale; Harley Williams, Frostburg, and Percy Williams, USA, who is enroute home from Japan, and two sisters, Mrs. Lee Reiber and Mrs. Pauline Scott, both of Grahamtown.

The body is at the residence.

JOHN F. BYRNES

LONACONING—John F. Byrnes, 65, died yesterday morning at Miners Hospital, Frostburg, following a lingering illness.

A former coal miner, Mr. Byrnes at one time was president of Local 2835, United Mine Workers of America. He attended St. Mary's Church and was a member of the Holy Name Society.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Clara Mills Byrnes; two sons, Alphonsus and DeSales Byrnes, and a daughter, Mrs. Marie Woods, all at home; three brothers, Walter Byrnes, Swissvale, Pa.; Michael Byrnes, Cumberland, and Thomas Byrnes, Wilkinsburg, Pa., and three grandchildren also survive.

A requiem mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a. m., tomorrow at St. Mary's Church by Rev. Charles W. Bogan, pastor. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

HERMAN S. BURKE

KEYSER, W. Va. — Herman S. Burke, 59, died Monday in a Chicago hospital where he had been a patient four days. He was a native of Keyser, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burke. He had resided in Chicago 40 years.

Survivors, include a daughter, Mrs. Burdenbaugh, Chicago; two brothers, Edwin Burke, McCoole, and Harry Burke, Chicago; two sisters, Misses Lena and Mabel Burke, both of Charlottsville, Va., and an aunt, Mrs. D. R. Shaw, McCoole.

A funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. today at the Markwood Funeral Chapel here. Rev. H. S. Myerly, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Queens Point Cemetery.

CLARENCE E. PATRICK

FAIRMONT, W. Va.—Clarence E. Patrick, 57, former resident of Lonaconing, and Cumberland, Md., died Monday at his home here following a lengthy illness.

A native of Lonaconing, he was the son of the late Robert and Isabelle Patterson Patrick.

He is survived by his wife and three children at home; a daughter, Mrs. Dolly Knight, Cumberland; three sisters, Mrs. S. May Zais, Cumberland, and Mrs. Bessie Pappas and Mrs. Dolly Hennessey, both of Washington; a brother, Harry Patrick, Martinsburg, and two grandchildren.

MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL
City of Cumberland
CUMBERLAND, MARYLAND

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

The sterilization of the new 36" Auxiliary Pipe Line:

Sealed bids will be received at the office of William J. Edwards, Commissioner of Water and Electric Lights, City Hall, Cumberland, Maryland, until 10 o'clock A. M. on the 2nd day of May, 1949, at which time they will be opened by the Mayor and City Council in public meeting. The following specifications will cover items:

1. The sterilization of the new 36" reinforced concrete pipeline located between Lake Gordon Filter Plant and the main distribution system—a distance of approximately nine (9) miles.
2. This sterilization will be completed under the supervision of the Departments of Health of the State of Maryland and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and mainly to consist of the retention for a period of 48 hours a chlorine residual reading of 50 ppm.
3. The chlorine gas shall be injected into the pipe by the vacuum type solution feed method and the pressure range of conditions existing in the line will be from 20 lb. minimum to 120 lb. maximum.
4. The present auxiliary line has all the necessary blow-off valves in various locations that will permit the treatment to be pressed under three separate sections.

The base bid shall include the above items for water treatment and the contractor shall supply all equipment, labor and trained supervision on the site and accept full responsibility for the sterilization treatment. Bids can be made in the form of a letter or standard proposal form including the above specifications and must be sealed in a specially addressed envelope bearing the name and address of the bidder.

The right is reserved to accept or reject any or all bids.

Signed:
WILLIAM J. EDWARDS
Commissioner Water & Electric Light.

Stock Market Prices Drop Fractions To Three Points

NEW YORK, April 21 (AP)—The stock market broke out of a narrow price range with sudden violence today.

Prices dropped fractions to an extreme of three points. Pivotal stocks as well as those with a speculative tinge were equally affected. The overall decline was one of the largest of the year, exceeded—and then only by small margins—only twice.

The general level of prices was forced dawn to the lowest since February 28, although it has been matched three times since then.

Trading volume expanded rapidly as quotations sagged. The day's business of 1,300,000 shares was the largest since 1,850,000 shares on March 30, the day a reduction in margin requirements went into effect.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost .9 of one point at 62.6. The drop was exceeded this year on February 5 (down 1.2) and January 3 (down 1.1).

At 62.6 the average was at a low since February 28. Three times during March it was matched.

Of the 1,063 individual issues which appeared on the ticker tape, 775 dropped and only 101 advanced.

Down a point or more were United States Steel, Youngstown Sheet and Tube, Chrysler, Studebaker, Goodrich, Firestone, Oliver Corporation, Boeing, United Aircraft, Lockheed, American Smelting, Du Pont, Allied Chemical, United States Gypsum, American Woolen, International Paper, Southern Pacific, Great Northern preferred, Union Pacific, Illinois Central, Sinclair Oil, Standard Oil (NJ), Gulf Oil, Amerada Petroleum, and Phillips Petroleum.

Among a sparse handful moving up here Granby Consolidated Mining (helped by a boosted dividend), American Viscose, New York Dock, Granite Steel, Woolworth, and Electric Storage Battery.

Following the lead of the stock market, which suffered its sharpest drop of the year, prices of many corporates slid back fractions to an extreme of three points. There were almost twice as many losses as gains over the list.

Volume also backtracked with the drop in prices. Turnover for the session was $3,830,000 against $4,190,000 yesterday on the busiest day of the month.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

The Park Board of the City of Cumberland will receive sealed bids in the office of the City Clerk, City Hall, Cumberland, Maryland, until ten o'clock A. M., E.D.T., May 2, 1949, for the privilege of operating the concession stands at Constitution Park, including the refreshment stand, and the casino over the bath house.

The concession privilege will embrace the exclusive privilege of vending, not in excess of standard prices, ice cream, sandwiches and such other articles as are ordinarily sold around public parks, excluding, however, beer, wine or any intoxicants. Such privilege shall not exclude persons or organizations from distributing articles free of charge in said park.

The successful bidder will be allowed the use of the cooler, shelves, tables and other equipment presently installed in the second floor of the casino. He will be required to furnish, at his expense, all other trade fixtures and equipment needed for his business. The conduct of his business will be subject to such general rules and regulations, including the use of advertising matter, as are now or may hereafter be adopted for the general government of the park by the Park Board.

The Park Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to accept the one which, in its judgement, will be for the best interest of the park and the City of Cumberland.

Forest Survey To Start Soon In Western Md.

Aerial Photos To Play Major Role

Aerial photographs will be a major part of a forest survey which will get underway soon in Allegany, Garrett, Washington and Frederick counties, Joseph F. Kaylor, director of the Department of State Forests and Parks, has announced.

Kaylor said contracts for the photography have already been let to the Aerial Service Corporation, Philadelphia, and added the survey will start in the next 30 days.

The forestry director said the survey will be conducted to speed up and intensify forestry activities already underway in the Potomac River Basin.

U. S. Forest Service specialists, he said, will work with William A. Parr, district forester, in determining the condition of Western Maryland watersheds.

Federal specialists, he added, will be assigned to the survey crews to interpret game food and cover conditions for the Department of Game and Inland Fish.

He explained that the photographs will be studied and interpreted by specialists, who will also make field inspections to check and supplement their findings.

The survey should furnish information, Kaylor said, as to which timber lands need improvements to make them more valuable, not only in producing timber, but in conserving water supplies.

State department officials, Kaylor asserted, believe the work will not only give an inventory of conditions of forest lands but will serve to show how recreation facilities in Western Maryland can be improved.

The forest lands, he declared, "can contribute a great deal more toward flood control, siltation and general improvement of the basin through intensive forestry activities within the basin."

Only the four counties in Western Maryland will be included in the survey at present, Kaylor declared, explaining that the remainder of the state's forests will be surveyed as pictures and survey crews become available.

William Gilchrist (in rear), past president of the Maryland Junior Chamber of Commerce is among 140 United States delegates expecting to attend the Fourth World Congress of the Junior Association of Commerce in Brussels April 21 to 28. Others who are seen boarding the plane with Gilchrist for the first leg of the journey across the Atlantic Ocean are Archer Smith (right, on steps), Coral Gables, Fla., chairman of international relations for the national organization, his wife, Florence (left, on the steps), and Frank G. Fister (at base of steps), Tulsa, Okla., executive vice president of the Junior Chamber.

Potomac River Group To Study Ohio Project

Program Would Be Test For Area

A report on the successful fight against floods and pollution of the Muskingum River in the Ohio Valley yesterday touched off a project to incorporate the plan in a program on the Monocacy River near Frederick and use it as a test for the entire Potomac basin.

The report was given by Bryce C. Browning, secretary-treasurer of the Muskingum Valley Conservation District which was beseiged by floods in 1800, 1884 and the most damaging in 1913.

Browning said the program was undertaken by Ohio district residents who then attracted national government interest and aid in putting the program into operation. It was planned to include a war on pollution and erosion also.

Government Adhered

The program was so well planned, Browning told his audience at the Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service meeting being held at Bedford Springs, Pa., that the Ohio residents were successful in having the government adhere to the local plan.

After he explained that the project also created an unexpected recreation project that last year alone netted the area $807,000, Marylanders began an immediate move to study the project's possible usefulness for the Potomac River.

The Maryland group is headed by Lawrence Crickenberger, Frederick, a master of the Grange, and if plausible will be put into operation on the Monocacy River basin near Frederick where its results will be studied with plans to spread it throughout the entire Potomac watershed.

The Maryland group gave indication that they would attempt to interest wildlife preserve groups in the plan since they believe the Potomac River offers definite possibilities for a recreation project in Maryland also.

Dr. D. L. Seckinger, assistant health officer in Washington, D. C., told the meeting that much of the burden must rest on the city dweller as well as the rural residents.

"Sick Unto Death"

He said the Potomac River is "sick unto death," and declared that the city areas stand to gain or lose the same as the farmer who has been fighting for improvements for years.

Dr. Seckinger elaborated on his reference to the city dwellers' gains by pointing out that if soil erosion is premitted to continue it will rob the food supply of much of the necessary nourishment on which good health depends.

Walter Gumbel, of the Monongahela Power Company, Fairmont, said industry must become interested in the program to clear the river and save the land since 60 per cent of all new wealth comes from the land.

He advocated setting up a school program to educate the public in its part to cleanse the river and combat soil erosion.

Wins VFW Essay Contest

Miss Nancy Robertson, 17-year-old Allegany High School student, is shown accepting a $25 Saving Bond from Mayor Thomas S. Post as first prize in an essay contest sponsored locally by Henry Hart Post No. 1411, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Miss Robertson turned in the winning essay on "My Part in America's Future," and was awarded the prize last night at the VFW post home. Other winners were Charles Lattimer, Fort Hill, second, and Miss Darlene Fleegle, Allegany, third.

Quartet Is Questioned In Box Car Thefts

Disposition Of Cases Due Today

Disposition of the cases of three youths and an older man who have been questioned in connection with the breaking and entering of at least a dozen box cars of the Western Maryland and C. and P. Railroads at Frostburg will be decided today.

This was announced yesterday by the State's Attorney's office. Authorities said the thefts occurred over a period of about seven weeks, from the latter part of February to April 18.

Value of the merchandise taken from the box cars was not estimated pending a complete check of weigh bills.

Articles Listed

Authorities quoted one of the youths, a 17-year-old Zihlman senior at Beall High School, as stating that articles taken from the box cars included candy, cigarets, BB shot, three air rifles, soap, window shades, canned milk, canned soup, chewing gum, alarm clocks, scissors and several boxes of lead pencils.

The older man has been identified as James Alonzo Crowe, a 42-year-old miner of Allegany who is married and the father of nine children. He told authorities one of the youths "goes with" his daughter.

In the latter part of February, Crowe said in a statement, the three youths came to his home with a carton of candy bars and a large Easter egg which they said they had purchased.

Two or three nights later, Crowe declared, the boys returned with a case of soap and a box of window blinds. He said he allowed the boys to keep the articles at his home because "they had helped me build the house."

Crowe admitted he and his wife knew the articles were stolen and that they used some of them. The man added that he accompanied the boys on several occasions but that he "never touched anything and didn't enter the box cars" authorities said.

He said he and the oldest of the three boys identified by police as John Allen Rizer, 18, Zihlman, acted as lookouts.

The 17-year-old Beall senior told authorities the broken box car seals were replaced by unused seals taken from the Mt. Savage Brick Yard.

The youth added that he and the two other boys used the air rifles to shoot glass out of switch lights and that they also shot out some windows of the telephone box at Sheridan, according to the State's Attorney's office.

He said that he knew nothing about a case of dynamite stolen from a magazine east of Frostburg but that the youths took 11 sticks of dynamite from Mike Harden's mines at Sheridan and exploded them 16 miles out of Allegany on stumps left from a strip mining operation.

Captured At Station

Last Monday night Special Agents Horace B. Clark and C. V. Barncord of the Western Maryland Railway Police captured the younger boys at the C. and P. Station in Frostburg. Crowe was arrested at his home while Rizer was taken into custody the following day.

In his statement to authorities, Crowe said he and Rizer were acting as lookouts that night and fled when they saw the railway police agents. Crowe said he turned over the articles to the officers when they arrived at his home.

When he first learned of the thefts, Crowe said, he warned the youths that breaking seals on box cars was a federal offense. He said his wife begged him to stop accompanying them but that they "coaxed me into doing it."

The 17-year-old youth told authorities that two cases of chewing gum and the carton of cigarets were left in a cellar at another home after the youths paid the owner for use of the cellar. He said the owner did not know the goods were stolen.

Crowe and the younger boys were also questioned with regard to two wheelbarrows and 31 sheets of cardboard which had been taken from the Big Savage Refractories property a number of months ago.

Crowe said the two boys brought him one of the wheelbarrows for use in hauling coal but that he knew nothing about the second wheelbarrow, which he said he found behind his home the following day. Several sheets of the cardboard were used as plaster board in Crowe's home, he told authorities.

Chamber Hears Of Road Program

Directors of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce met last night and reviewed highway projects slated for Allegany and Garrett Counties which will cost more than $5,500,000.

Action taken at the meeting of the Board of Directors included:

A restatement of the Chamber's endorsement of the World Calendar. The group will ask legislators to support a Senate bill which would call for adoption of the plan.

Luncheon Planned

Approval of plans for a luncheon meeting of the Chamber to be held Monday at 12:15 p. m. in Central YMCA. Colored motion pictures of the inauguration of air service in this city will be shown by Woodrow Gurley.

A check up with the offices of All American Airways yesterday indicated that traffic here is fairly satisfactory since it is averaging about five pasengers a day. Incoming express is fairly heavy, with outgoing mail and express light.

TWUA Department Meetings Planned

The Filtration and Spinning departments of Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America (CIO) will hold special meetings at the union hall Monday at 7:30 p. m. and Tuesday at 10:30 a. m.

Homer Berry, Filtration chairman, said discussion and action on stepped up vacation schedules will be discussed.

Club Playground Group To Elect

Officers will be elected at a meeting of the Cumberland Country Club Playground Association next Tuesday evening at 8:30 in the locker room building.

Present officers are Mrs. Gordon L. Bowie, chairman; and Mrs. Emett L. Jones, secretary. Mrs. Donald Lacross served as treasurer before she moved out of town recently.

Date for opening the playground will be set, and appointment of a director will be discussed. Parents of children between the ages of 3 to 12 are urged to attend.

The Weather

Apparently the adage that all good things must come to an end covers Cumberland's restless weather. The beautiful spring weather that breezed in yesterday will give over, if the Weather Bureau is right, to cloudy and mild weather, with occasional light rain today. Oh, well, it's only light rain.

PE Is Named Party Defendant In Damage Action

An order of court was signed yesterday by Associate Judge Oliver H. Bruce, Jr., naming the Potomac Edison Company a party defendant in an auto accident damage suit filed last December 30.

The action was instituted by the State of Maryland for the use of James L. Russ, age 10, and Shirley L. Russ, age 9, children of Hazel V. Russ, widow, against Robert M. Smutko, the Eastern Maintenance Company and James Piacitelli.

The declaration alleges that Mrs. Russ was struck and fatally injured by an auto on McMullen Boulevard at the main entrance of the Celanese plant last May 3. She was hit by a car operated by Smutko, an employe of the Eastern Company. Piacitelli, it is alleged, was driving another car behind Smutko and crashed against the rear of Smutko's car, contributing to the mishap.

Charles Z. Heskett represents Smutko; William C. Walsh represents the Potomac Edison Company and W. Earle Cobey represents Piacitelli who filed the motion for the third party defendant.

In the motion, Cobey alleges for his client that Mrs. Russ was riding aboard a Potomac Edison bus and she was discharged as a passenger at a dangerous place on the highway. The motion claims that it is the duty of the bus company to discharge passengers in places of reasonable safety.

The original suit is for $25,000.

Quench Grass Fire

District 16, North Branch, Volunteer Fire Company battled for an hour yesterday to extinguish a grass fire which burned over about 20 acres of land at the home of James McCabe, Oldtown Road.

Fire Chief William Sowers said five firemen assisted in fighting the blaze which started about 2 p. m.

Deaths

MRS. FANNIE HINEBAUGH

Mrs. Fannie B. Hinebaugh, 98, mother of Walter and Roy Hinebaugh, this city, died yesterday at her home in Pittsburgh.

She was born in Upperville, Va., October 20, 1850, a daughter of the late Joel T. Ward and Frances Johnson Ward. Mrs. Hinebaugh lived in Oakland most of her life but spent the past 32 years in Pittsburgh. Her husband, Alphus Hinebaugh, died February 3, 1914. She was a member of the Episcopal Church in Oakland, and visited a son, Harry W. Hinebaugh, in Oakland every summer. She was organist at the church for several years.

Besides her sons, Mrs. Hinebaugh is survived by a daughter, Miss Bessie Hinebaugh, Pittsburgh, seven grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

A funeral service will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow at the Bolden Funeral Home, Oakland, by Rev. Austin Schildwachter, pastor of the Episcopal Church, with interment in Oakland Cemetery.

WILLINGHAM RITES

Final rites for Charles A. Willingham, 68, who died Monday at his home, 221 Bedford Street, were conducted at the residence yesterday by Rev. Dr. H. Hall Sharp, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church. Interment was in Hillcrest Burial Park.

Pallbearers were Donald McFarland, John L. Bauer, Stephen Jordan, Walter Bell, Charles Batt and Clarence Painter.

JAMES H. DYCHE

James Henry Dyche, 77, of Grand Avenue, died at 10 o'clock last night in Memorial Hospital, where he was admitted yesterday after suffering a stroke about a week ago.

Born October 21, 1861, at Orleans, Mr. Dyche was a son of the late George H. and Lucinda Dyche. He had lived here about 20 years. Mr. Dyche worked for the Western Maryland Railway Company for 55 years until his retirement as a track foreman 18 years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bessie M. Whorrell Dyche, five sons,

Youths Are Reported Firing Guns In City

City police last night were investigating reports from several sections of Cumberland that school youths are discharging firearms near residential sections during the late afternoon and night.

Assistant Chief of Police B. Frank Gaffney said several residents of the Rose Hill Avenue section have reported shots coming very near to homes and added in other sections persons stated the slugs have come dangerously close to them.

The assistant chief warned that any person found using firearms in the city limits will be "prosecuted to the full extent of the law."

Labor Opposes Wood Measure

The Western Maryland Labor Unity Conference, at a meeting in Westernport last night, rejected as inadequate the amended Wood Bill and called for the repeal of the Taft-Hartley Law and the enactment of administration labor management legislation.

Delegates also:

Voted endorsement of the National Health Bill and the Wage and Hour laws.

Voted to oppose a proposed increase in telephone rates and will inform Public Service Commission officials of its stand prior to a hearing planned May 23, Paul L. Burley, secretary said.

The labor conference was the guest of Luke Local 676, United Paperworkers of America (CIO).

Designed to help you lose two or three pounds a week, the diet was reviewed by medical and diet experts before publication.

Girl Breaks Leg While Skating

Linda Wolford, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wolford, Cresaptown, was treated at Memorial Hospital at 6 p. m. yesterday for a fracture of the right leg.

The girl told attaches she fell while skating Wednesday night at Crystal Roller Rink, but did not know the leg was fractured until taken to a physician yesterday by her parents. A cast was applied and she was discharged.

Salvation Army Youth Council To Meet Here

Over 600 Delegates Enroll For Event

Over 600 delegates have already registered for the annual Young People's Council of the Salvation Army for Maryland and Northern West Virginia which will be held here May 14 and 15, Major Elmer Wall, commander of the Cumberland corps, announced yesterday.

It is expected, he added, that total enrollment will be about 650 to make the meeting one of the largest Young People's Councils of the Salvation Army's Southern Division during 1949.

All sessions of the two-day spiritual meeting will be held in Allegany High School.

The program will open Saturday, May 14, at 10 a. m. with a welcome session. A group picture will be taken in front of the school at noon prior to a civic reception.

Col. Robert Rose, Baltimore, divisional commander, will introduce Mayor Thomas S. Post, who will welcome the delegates to Cumberland.

Col. P. L. DeBevoise, Atlanta, Ga., chief secretary of the Salvation Army's Southern Division, will give the response on behalf of the council.

Highlights of the meeting will include a "Meet Your Youth" program planned that afternoon and an original pageant that night depicting the life of General William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army.

The meeting will end Sunday at 10 a. m. with a worship and consecration service to be held in the school auditorium.

Local Youths Named Committee Heads

Two local Hi-Y members, Charles Bucy and Bill Bailey, have been named committee chairmen at the Boy Legislature which convened yesterday in Annapolis, according to the Associated Press.

Bucy, a member of the Hi-Y at Allegany High School, heads the public welfare and institutions committee, while Bailey, a representative of the Central YMCA Rec Club, is chairman of the motor vehicles committee.

Ground Breaking Service At New Church Site Set

Ceremony Tomorrow At Potomac Park

A ground breaking ceremony for the new parsonage and first unit of the Potomac Park Evangelical United Brethren Church will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The site of the new church and parsonage is at Potomac Park overlooking McMullen Boulevard on the ground where a colorful community Christmas tree and Biblical display were featured the past two Yuletide seasons.

The congregation has been working for sometime to raise funds to build the parsonage and church building. Last Sunday, according to Rev. Lee E. Sheaffer, offerings at the church and Sunday School totaled more than $1,500 which made the building fund $10,207.41. A goal of $10,000 had been set as the local congregation's share of the total with the mission board and conference providing additional funds. The congregation raised $4,407.41 during the past year.

Among those who will attend the ground breaking service will be members of the Virginia Conference Board of Missions including Rev. Floyd L. Folk, superintendent, Broadway, Va.; Dr. J. Paul Gruver, Martinsburg, W. Va., president of the board; Rev. W. B. Obaugh, Elkton, Va., secretary-treasurer of the board; Rev. C. K. Welch, this city; Rev. J. R. Collis, Martinsburg, W. Va.; Dr. Carl Hiser, Winchester, Va.; Rev. J. R. Sawyer, Staunton, Va.; Rev. J. W. Westfall, Petersburg, W. Va.; Rev. R. L. Brill, Verona, Va.; Dr. E E Miller, Harrisonburg, Va; and Rev. L. S. Bowman, Clinton, Va.

Members of the building and finance committee will officially represent the Potomac Park Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The committee includes Rev. Sheaffer, chairman; I. D. DeWitt, secretary; Harry D. Waybright, treasurer; Mrs. Garland Paxton, Mrs. Robert A. Haines, Mrs. John Zink, Mrs. Edward Shaffer, Mrs. Virginia Wright, K. C. Crowe, R. H. Caske, Joseph A. Nicodemus, Ralph Harmon, Horace Mills, Russell G. Robeson, Ray F. Simpson, and Robert A. Haines.

On Easter Sunday, 26 new members were added to the church making a total of 32 since last October 1, or a net increase of 45 per cent. Rev. Sheaffer said Sunday School attendance Easter Sunday was 118 for a record high. On Palm Sunday, Rev. Sheaffer christened five children including James M. Cornelius, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elton M. Cornelius; Sandra Kay Haese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Haese; Richard D.

Ford's To Quit McCleave Building Where Much History Was Written

The McCleave Building, Baltimore Street, where a gang of desperadoes shot it out with police long before high school dates began assembling there was headed last night for a new chapter of history as Ford's Drug Store announced it would quit the site at the close of business Saturday.

The building, which during the long years since its construction has housed a postoffice, a bank and numerous businesses, will likely become the location for an expanding clothing store, but plans are still indefinite.

Irvin Pariser, owner of the building and The Manhattan Clothing Store, which occupies part of the structure, said architects plans are now being drawn for remodeling work but have not advanced far enough to discuss. He purchased the building about a year ago.

Long before the present business opened there, Cumberlanders were walking to the building to mail letters and buy stamps. It was a postoffice in the late 1800's and early part of this century.

Somewhere in the same period the old German Savings Bank was doing business in the rear of the building. It was there that the one man police force known as Bud Goss stopped Mike Moore's gang from staging a successful holdup.

It was during the past 16 years when the Ford Store operated there that high school students strolled in after the day's study to sip a coke and talk with their favorite boy and girl friends.

The building was erected, one longtime resident said, by Hopewell Hebb, who for a time operated a business there. The bank was an established firm when the Moore gang walked in and demanded cash.

Officer Goss was standing on the corner as the gang backed the employes to the wall but he had his gun out and was blazing away before Moore and his men ever touched the money. Moore, they say, was wounded by the officer but escaped to Keyser, W. Va., where he was captured next day along with other members.

Trial followed and he was sentenced to 20 years in prison. The others got penalties that were just as stiff.

Soon after the bank moved from the site and the postoffice also moved up the street. Then the long history of business enterprises be-
